ACTIVITIES

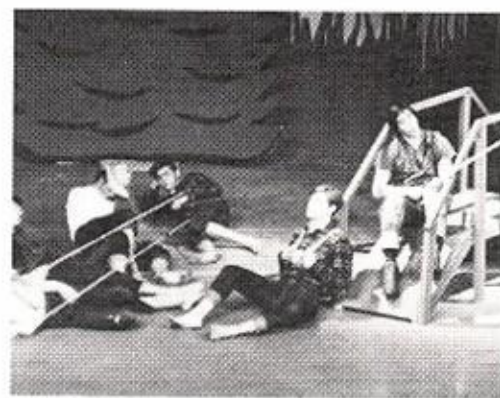

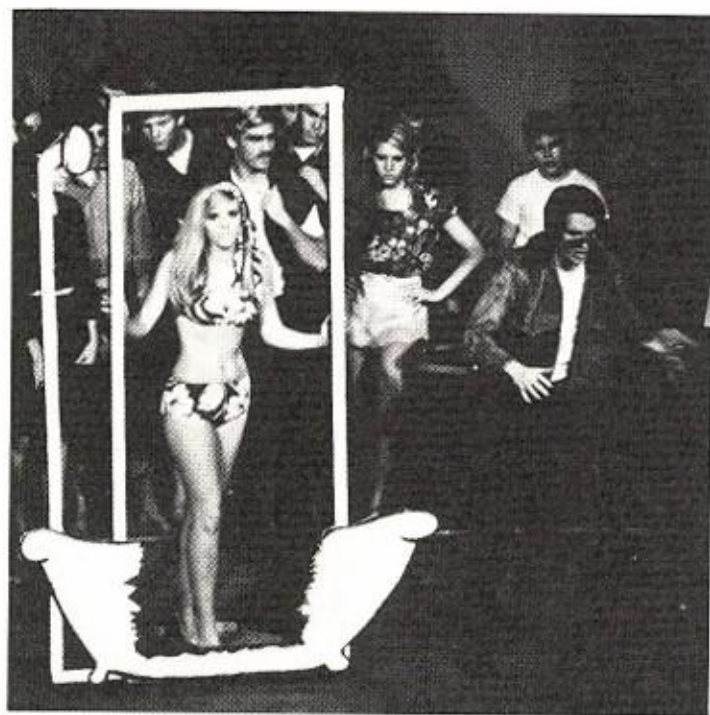

Li'l Abner

In November of 1969, the Trinity Dept. of Theatre Arts staged the musical-comedy "Li'l Abner." The cast was comprised of over one hundred students from Assumption, Sacred Heart, and Trinity, and played to near capacity crowds at St. Francis of Rome's Auditorium.

Anthony Lukes portrayed the lead role of Li'l Abner. Other members of the cast were: Joe Wight as "Pappy Yokum," Tom Pursley - "Marryin' Sam," Tom Johnson - "General Bullmoose," Terry Hancock - "Senator Phogbound," Kevin Martin - "Dr. Finsdale," Neal Oliphant - "Evil Eye Fleagle," Tom Murdock - "Available Jones," and Guistino Dattilo - "Earthquake McGoon." Leading female roles were played by Janice Medina as "Daisy Mae," Anne Scheen - "Mammy Yokum," Barbara Baldwin - "Appasionata von Climax," and Connie Hartlage - "Stupefyin' Jones," all from Sacred Heart.

Li'l Abner was produced and directed by Fr. Theodore Sans. Choreography and costume selections were handled by Mrs. Margo Goodwin. Charles Bennett designed the set, Fr. Albert Moore directed the set construction, and Mr. C. I. Thompson directed the musical compositions.

Luther

"Luther," the second play undertaken by Trinity's Drama Club this year, was acclaimed by many as one of the best high school plays ever performed here. John Sipes, as Martin Luther, gave an outstanding performance. This excellent drama depicting the life of Martin Luther, played at St. Francis of Rome Auditorium on April 17, 19, and 26.

Other leading roles were played by Pete Rivard as "the Knight," Neal Augustus - "the Prior," Brian Searles - "Hans Luther" (Luther's father), John Eiler - "Lucus" (a friend of Hans Luther), John Williamson - "Weinand," Tom Murdick - "Tetzel," Anthony Lukes - "Staupitz," Mike Riordan - "Cajetan," Kevin Martin - "Miltitz," Tom Johnson - "Pope Leo X," and Tom Stevens - "Eck."

The only leading female role was enacted by Barbara Peters as "Katherine" (Luther's wife).

Fr. Theodore Sans both produced and directed "Luther." The set was designed by Fr. Albert Moore, Charles Bennett, and David Ribar. Mrs. Margo Goodwin, Fr. Albert Moore, Charles Bennett, James Leary, and David Ribar directed the makeup. The chorus director was Fr. Michael Diebold, and Mrs. Margo Goodwin, Joseph Davis, and John Laughlin designed the costumes.

Fall Festival

The 1969 Fall Festival, although falling short of its $17,000 goal by some $3000 was still rated a great success, nearly doubling last year's profits. Spurred on by the incentive of extra holidays, the entire school attained the 50% deadline in time for one free day, but a last minute chance drive fell just short of the 100% goal holiday.

Profits from the Fall Festival finance the construction of several projects throughout the school. The improvements were as follows: the addition of several doors in the "C" building, enabling a swifter flow of traffic in the halls, and the addition of an extra counseling office. The Festival also financed the carpeting in the "A" and "C" buildings, helped to supply the science labs, and made several contributions to the Athletic Dept. and the Science Club.

Dance*

Trinity's Junior Class held its annual dance on Friday, May 22, at the Medical Arts Building. The music was provided by the Fanatics, a popular local group. Fr. Kevin Caster planned the dance with juniors Pat Bleemel, Mark Holzknecht, Charles Johnson, Ron LaFollette, John Poole, and Dan Woock.

A joint Presentation - Trinity Science Club was formed in the 1969-70 school year, its purpose being to enable club members to explore certain fields of science not readily available in the classroom. One of the highlights of the club's scientific ventures was a trip to the Land Between the Lakes near the end of November. Under the supervision of Trinity's Fr. Duerr and Presentation's Sr. Rose, sixty students journeyed to the wilds of Western Kentucky to observe and discover certain aspects of undisturbed nature unique to this area. A total of sixty students went on the trip.

The Pres.-THS Science Club also sponsored a seminar on the theory of Continental Drift in October. Mr. Monroe, a professor at the University of Louisville, spoke to the club members on recent discoveries backing the Continental Drift theory. The seminar was held at Catherine Spalding College, adjacent to Presentation Academy. Approximately thirty students attended the seminar.

This year witnessed Trinity's Air Force Junior Reserve Officer's Training Corps (AFJROTC) development into a complete three year program. Enrolled in this year's program were fifty-one sophomores, twenty-eight juniors and thirty seniors, for a total enrollment of one hundred and nine Cadets under Lt. Col. Joseph French and Sgt. Murray Rupe.

Trinity's AFJROTC program itself was seventy-five per cent Aerospace Education. The remainder is occupied by the "Leadership Lab" which includes drill, Honor Guard, flag raising, and the Air Police, its goal being to instill leadership qualities and discipline into the Cadets by actual practice.

During the spring vacation, (March 11-15), approximately twenty-five Cadets visited McCoy Air Force Base and Cape Kennedy in Florida to observe America's achievements in the aerospace field. This trip was marked by a visit to the Cape Kennedy Apollo 13 Controls just before the launch of the near disastrous mission.

Honor Society

Trinity's National Honor Society, headed by President Dennis Price, underwent a period of rebuilding in the 1969-70 school year. The organization engaged in several tasks this year to re-establish the significance of the Society in Trinity life. Some of the projects set upon by the Honor Society were: 1) the organization of "Earth Day" activities, 2) the publishing of Trinity's literary magazine, 3) the sponsoring of the Trinity-Assumption marriage seminar, 4) the formation of a tutoring service for students in need of academic assistance, and 5) a visit to the Kentucky School for the Blind, which enabled the Society to make several recordings, adding greatly to the educational facilities there.

National Honor Society Officers were: Dennis Price, President; Brian Searles, vice-president; John Sipes, treasurer; and Terry Hancock, secretary. This year's moderator was Mr. Joseph Wathen.

The officers for the 1970-71 school year, as elected in May, were Terry Hancock, president; Kevin Martin, vice-president; Mike Riordan, treasurer; and Perry Johnson, secretary.

This year's election results enabled the team of Dan Woock and Mike McCarthy to capture the offices of the presidency and vice-presidency, respectively. Frank Clark and Steve Woock, in an extremely close election, placed first in the respective offices of second vice-president and secretary, and freshman Bob Woock was elected treasurer for the 1970-71 school year.

Trinity's varsity debate team, consisting of juniors Dan Bischoff, Bruce Davenport, Dave Wagner, and sophomore Buddy Rogers, attained an 8-8 overall record this year. This was quite an achievement, for all of the team's members were first-year debaters. The varsity team wound up in fifth place in their league, losing to Seneca in a playoff round which decided fourth place.

One of the highlights of the debate season was a series of televised contests, "Reason and Controversy," sponsored by Bellarmine-Ursuline College and WLKY-TV, in which Trinity participated. In these contests, Trinity won its first two debates against Western and Southern, but failed to win in their third and fourth appearances against tough teams from Sacred Heart and Waggener, respectively.

The JV debaters (juniors Terry Hancock, Mike Riordan, sophomore Jim Dickens, and freshman Bruce Tomassetti), finished with an excellent 8-2-league record, placing first in their bracket. They also placed third in the city championship tournament, losing only on speaker points, which enabled the debaters to finish with a 12-5 overall record. In an interstate tournament at Gatlinburg, Tennessee, the JVs placed second out of the twenty-five schools competing.

Art

Trinity's Art program, under the direction of Fr. Albert Moore and Mr. Michael Price, was aimed toward those students considering art as a major in college. This year's program was divided into three parts: Art I, drawing and design; Art II, two dimensional color design, water color, and sculpture; and Art III, stone sculpture, plastics, and oil and acrylic painting.

Examples from each of the above divisions were displayed in the library at midyear.

SPORTS

IRISH FALL SHORT IN BID FOR TITLE REPEAT

"Unknown in quantity and quality," was the preseason appraisal by Coach Kennedy of his 1969 squad. "We won't be a contender, and might wind up fourth or fifth in the city." Noted for his conservative estimates, Coach Kennedy's remarks nevertheless reflected the uncertain atmosphere which greeted the arrival of a new football season at Trinity.

Practically overlooked in the preseason polls, the Rocks had only six regulars returning from the state champion combination of the previous year. Shuffling of the assistant coaching staff had resulted in the holdover of only John Sullivan, defensive line coach. Then in a surprise move that puzzled many followers, senior Dennis Scully, generally regarded as one of the finest quarterbacks in the league, was converted to tailback in favor of junior upstart Joe Pierce. The Irish remained a question mark even as they marched off to Steubenville, Ohio, to do battle with the powerful Big Red in their opening game.

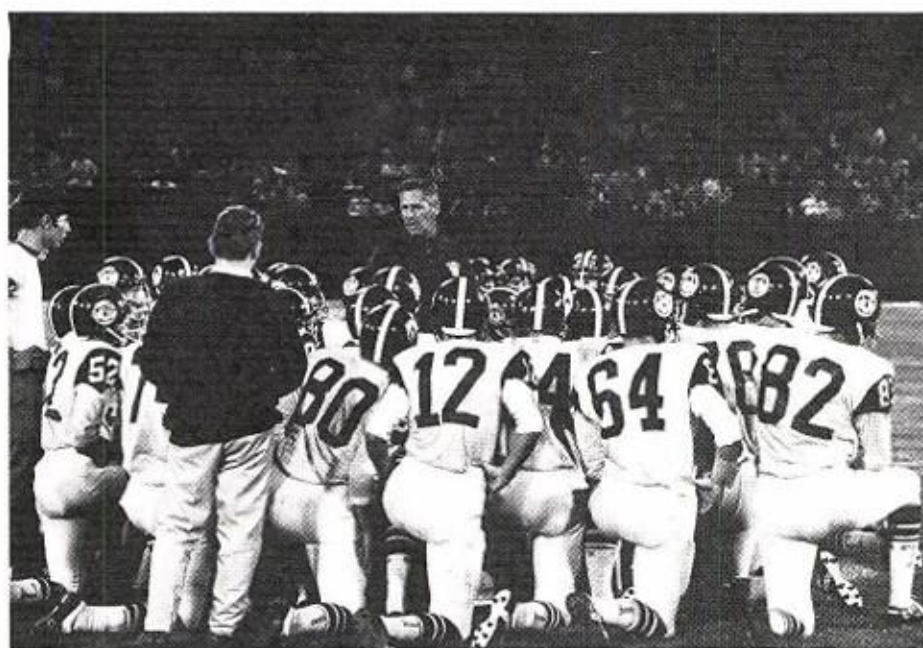

However, any doubts were dispelled as the Irish convincingly crushed Steubenville High 21-8. The Rocks went on to rack up nine victories in ten outings, absorbing their only defeat at the claws of arch-rival St. X by the score of 12-6. It was this loss, however, which proved decisive in denying Trinity a shot at a second AAA title, as the Irish placed runner-up to eventual state champion St. X in the City Region.

After a season which saw the Shamrocks average 23 points and 290 yards a game against usually much larger opponents, it was no surprise for Coach Kennedy to remark that "... this Trinity bunch has more pride and heart than any I've been associated with. They made the coaches look good."

Head Coach Jim Kennedy, perfectionist on as well as off the field, guided the Rocks to a 9-1 record and a second place berth in the City Region. Now in his fourth season as Trinity mentor, Coach Kennedy has compiled a won-lost slate of 26-12-1. (opposite page) Senior end Frank Mudd hauls in one of the 21 receptions he had for the season.

ROCKS FLEX MUSCLES EARLY, CRUSH CENTRAL AND DESALES

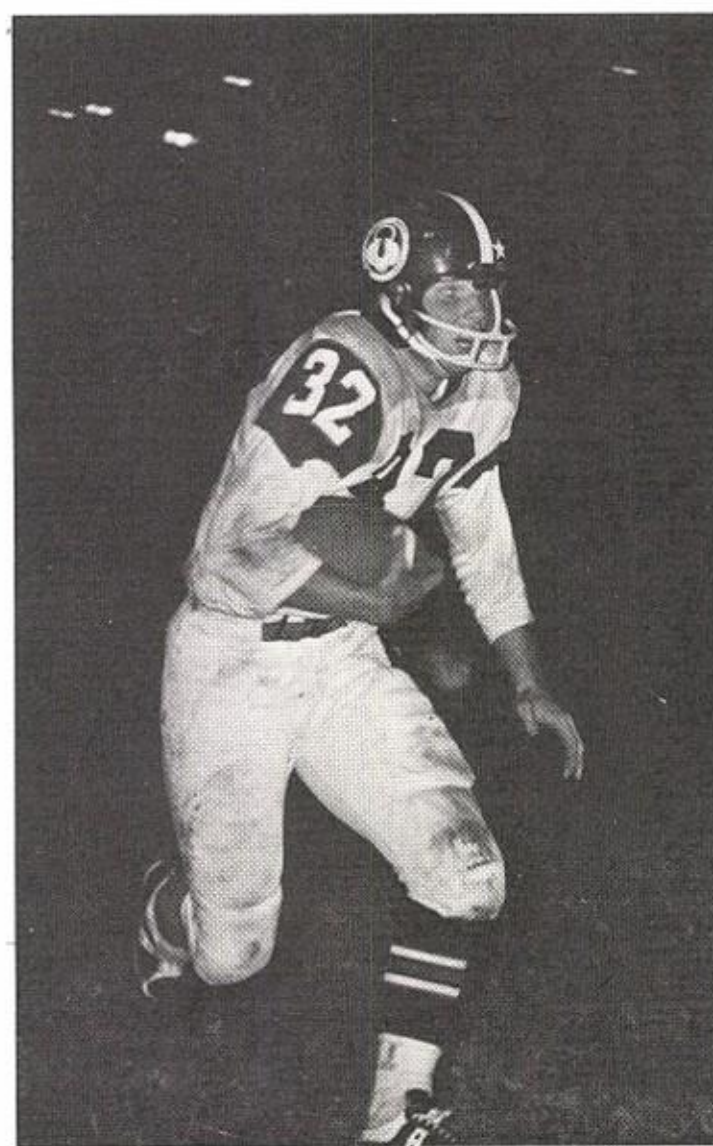

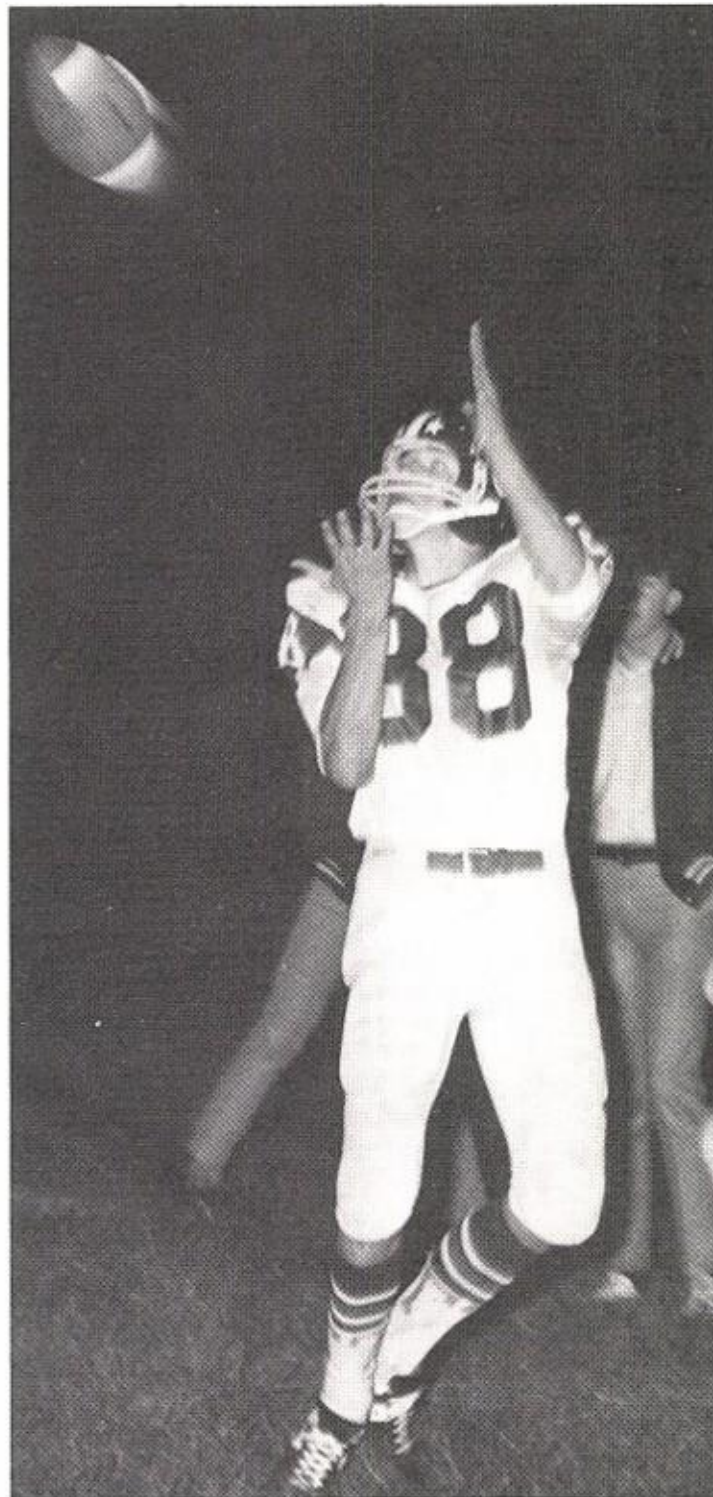

Against their first league opposition of the season, the Shamrocks buried punchless Central and DeSales 42-12 and 31-0 respectively in a massive display of offensive firepower.

At home again after a successful 700 mile trek to Steubenville, Ohio, Trinity pounded out 412 yards and 6 touchdowns for the hometown fans against a lack-luster Central team. Leading only 7-6 with six minutes left in the first half, quarterback Joe Pierce finally broke the ice with a 21-yard scoring play on a screen pass to fullback Joe Kirchner. From there the Irish galloped to a 21-6 halftime lead and the only thing left in doubt was the size of the winning margin.

With their offense piling up 382 yards and their defense sporting a shutout effort, the fighting Irish methodically demolished a hapless DeSales team at Atherton field. The Rock defense limited the Colts to 103 total yards and 4 first downs while rigidly containing the highly regarded Colt pass combination of quarterback Scotty Buckingham and end Steve Green. The stingy Shamrock secondary permitted Buckingham only 2 completions in 13 attempts while snagging three interceptions.

(top, left) Senior End Frank Mudd, seen here hauling in a 24-yard pass from Pierce against DeSales, had teamed up earlier with quarterback Pierce on a 8-yard scoring strike for the game's first touchdown en route to a 31-0 whitewashing of the Colts. Against Central, Mudd had two receptions for 24 yards and tallied 2 two-point conversions on passes from Pierce. (left) Fullback Joe Kirchner bulled his way for 44 yards and two touchdowns, one a 21-yard score on a screen pass from Pierce, in the Rocks' 42-12 triumph over the Central Yellowjackets.

In the DeSales game, Kirchner capped a 53-yard Irish drive with a 2-yard scoring plunge for a 12-0 Trinity lead. He finished thenight with 36 yards in 8 carries.

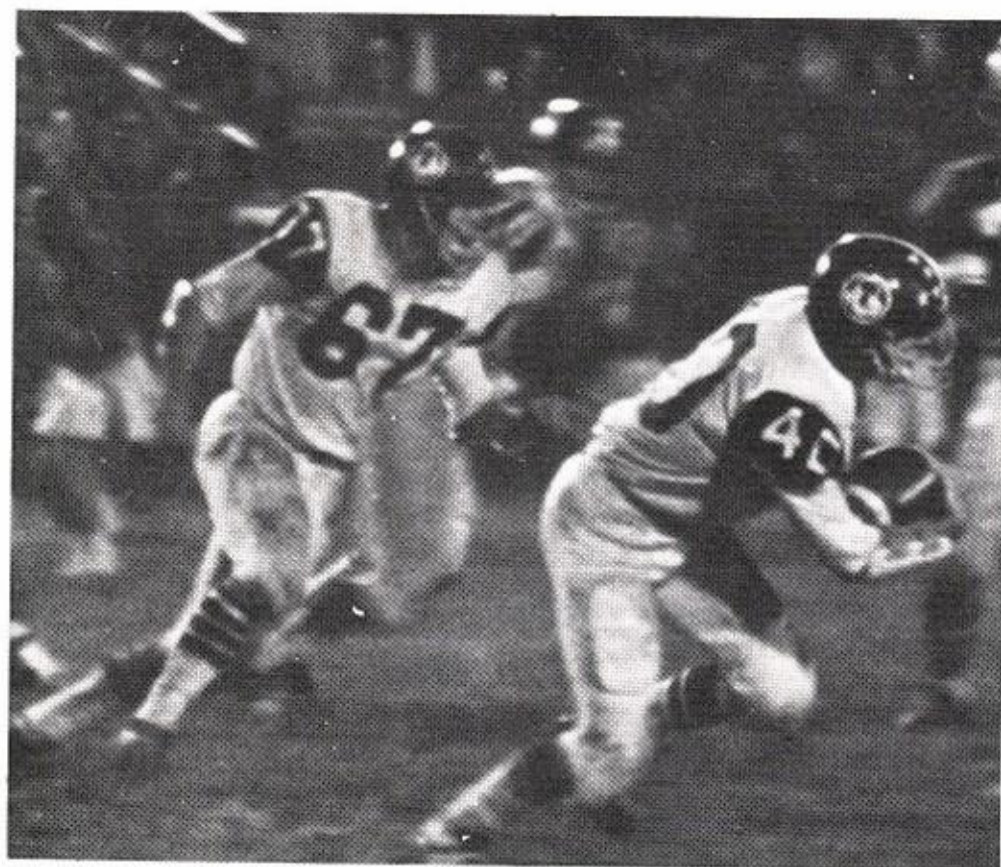

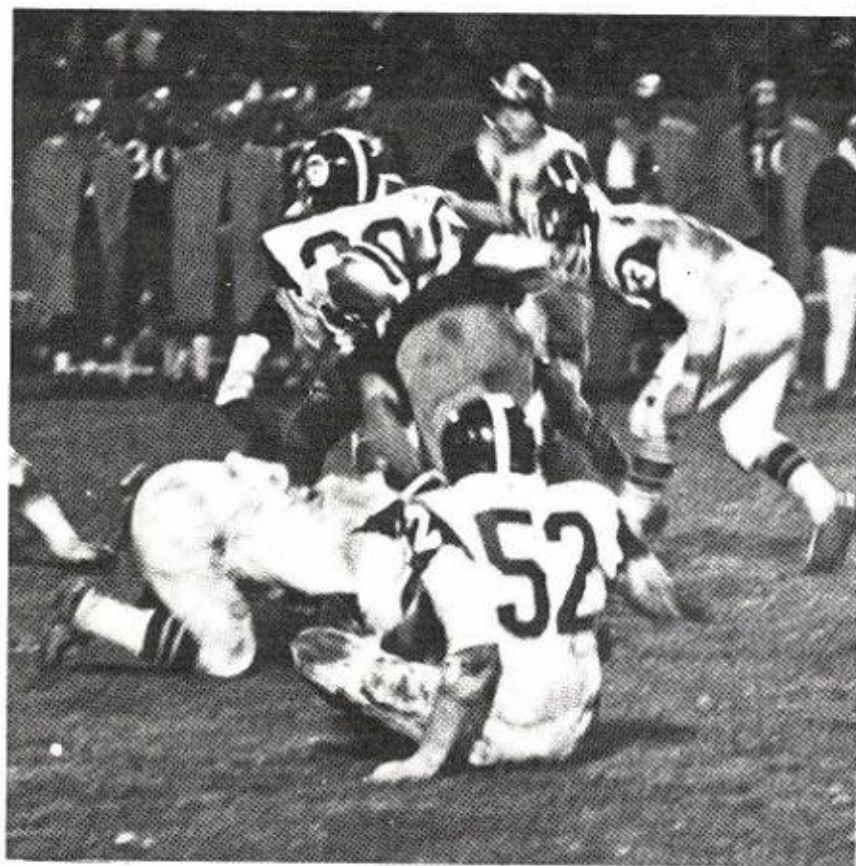

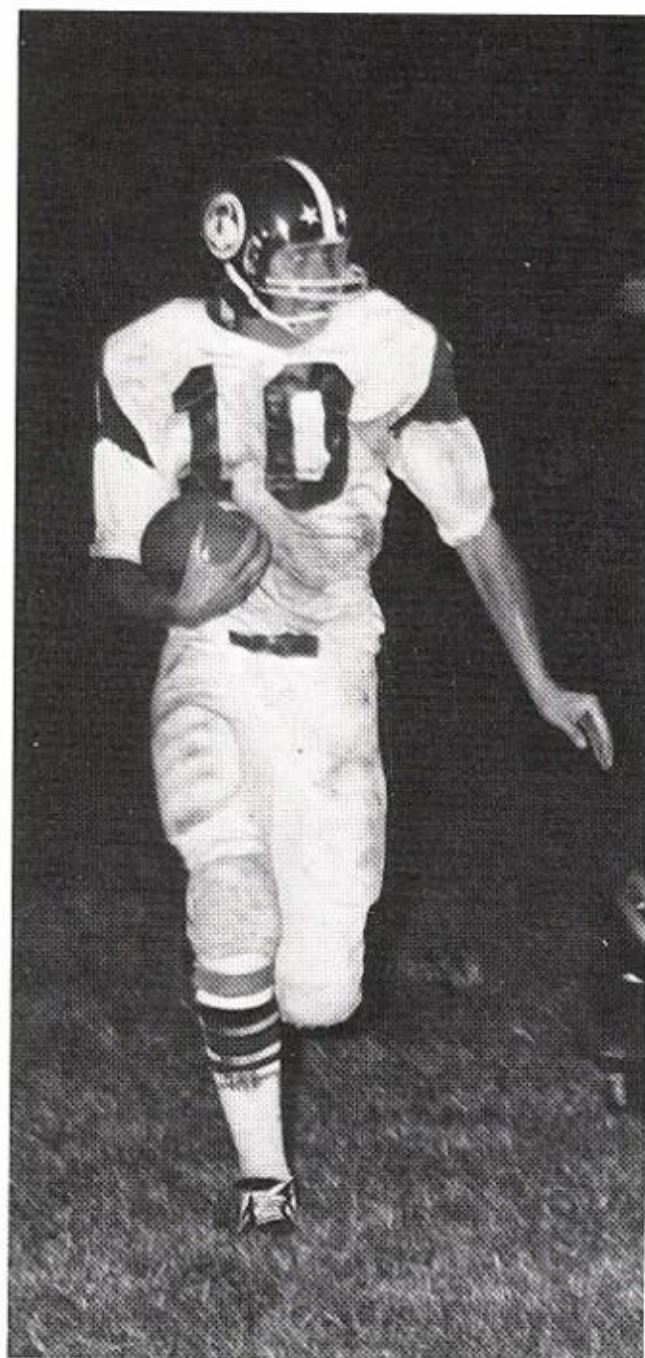

GRIDDERS RIP THREE OF CITY'S

At Manual Stadium, against Flaget, sparked by quarterback Joe Pierce's 37-yard run, Trinity scored twice in the final 7 minutes and 40 seconds of the game to pull out a 13-7 squeaker over the upset-minded Braves. Whipped offensively by Flaget during the first three quarters, Trinity's dormant offense finally began to perk late in the game. With the Irish trailing 7-0 and a third-and-17 situation on the Flaget 43, Pierce (right, and bottom opp. page) rolled left, spotted daylight, and raced 37 yards to the Flaget 6. From there halfback Dennis Scully skirted around left end for the score. After the try for a two-point conversion failed, the Rocks marched 45 yards in nine plays to score the next time they had the ball, with fullback Joe Kirchner plunging over from the two for the winning marker.

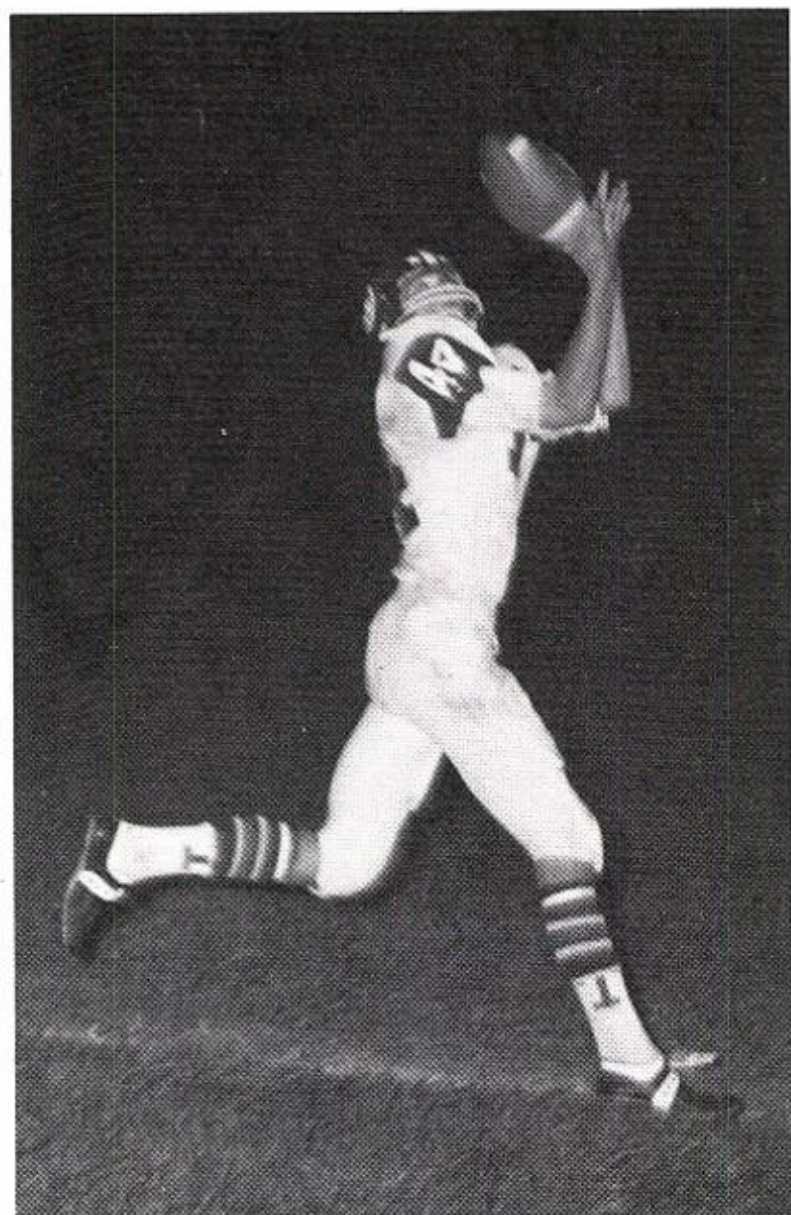

Combining a vicious running attack with pinpoint passing, Trinity rolled to a 28-6 shellacking of Manual at Manual Stadium. However, it was the Shamrock defense that protected a shaky 14-6 lead when Manual threatened early in the final quarter. On fourth down and a goal situation on the Trinity one, the Rock goalline defense halted the Crimson advance inches from the end zone. After that, the Irish exploded for two touchdowns, one on a 48-yard return by Ronnie Hall, to post their comfortable 22-point winning margin.

Overcoming the bitter November cold and a bad case of the fumbles, the Shamrocks managed to dispose of dangerous Male 14-6 in their season finale. It was not until Ron Hall intercepted a Male pass and sprinted 40 yards for a touchdown on the final play of the game that the Rocks were assured of their ninth victory in ten outings. In the opening half, Hall had set up Trinity's first touchdown, a 36-yard by Rick Hancock, with a punt return of 35 yards to the Male 45. Although churning out 271 yards on the ground, the Irish failed repeatedly to move out to a comfortable advantage by fumbling the ball to the Bulldogs four times.

"BIG FOUR" — BUT FALL TO ST. X

ST. X JINX REMAINS, ROCKS FALL 12-6

Yes, disbelieving Rock supporters, once again Trinity has tasted defeat at the hands of arch-foe St. X, this time in a heartbreaker 12-6. Billed as the game of the year, it was the decisive showdown between the two rivals battling for the coveted State AAA crown. Lured by the attraction of two teams boasting "swarming defenses and super-charged offenses," a near capacity crowd of 20,000 packed Fairgrounds Stadium to the rafters. Unfortunately, only St. X lived up to its billing, as the Rock offense sputtered for a meager 86 yards and relied heavily on the defensive squad to stay close to the contest.

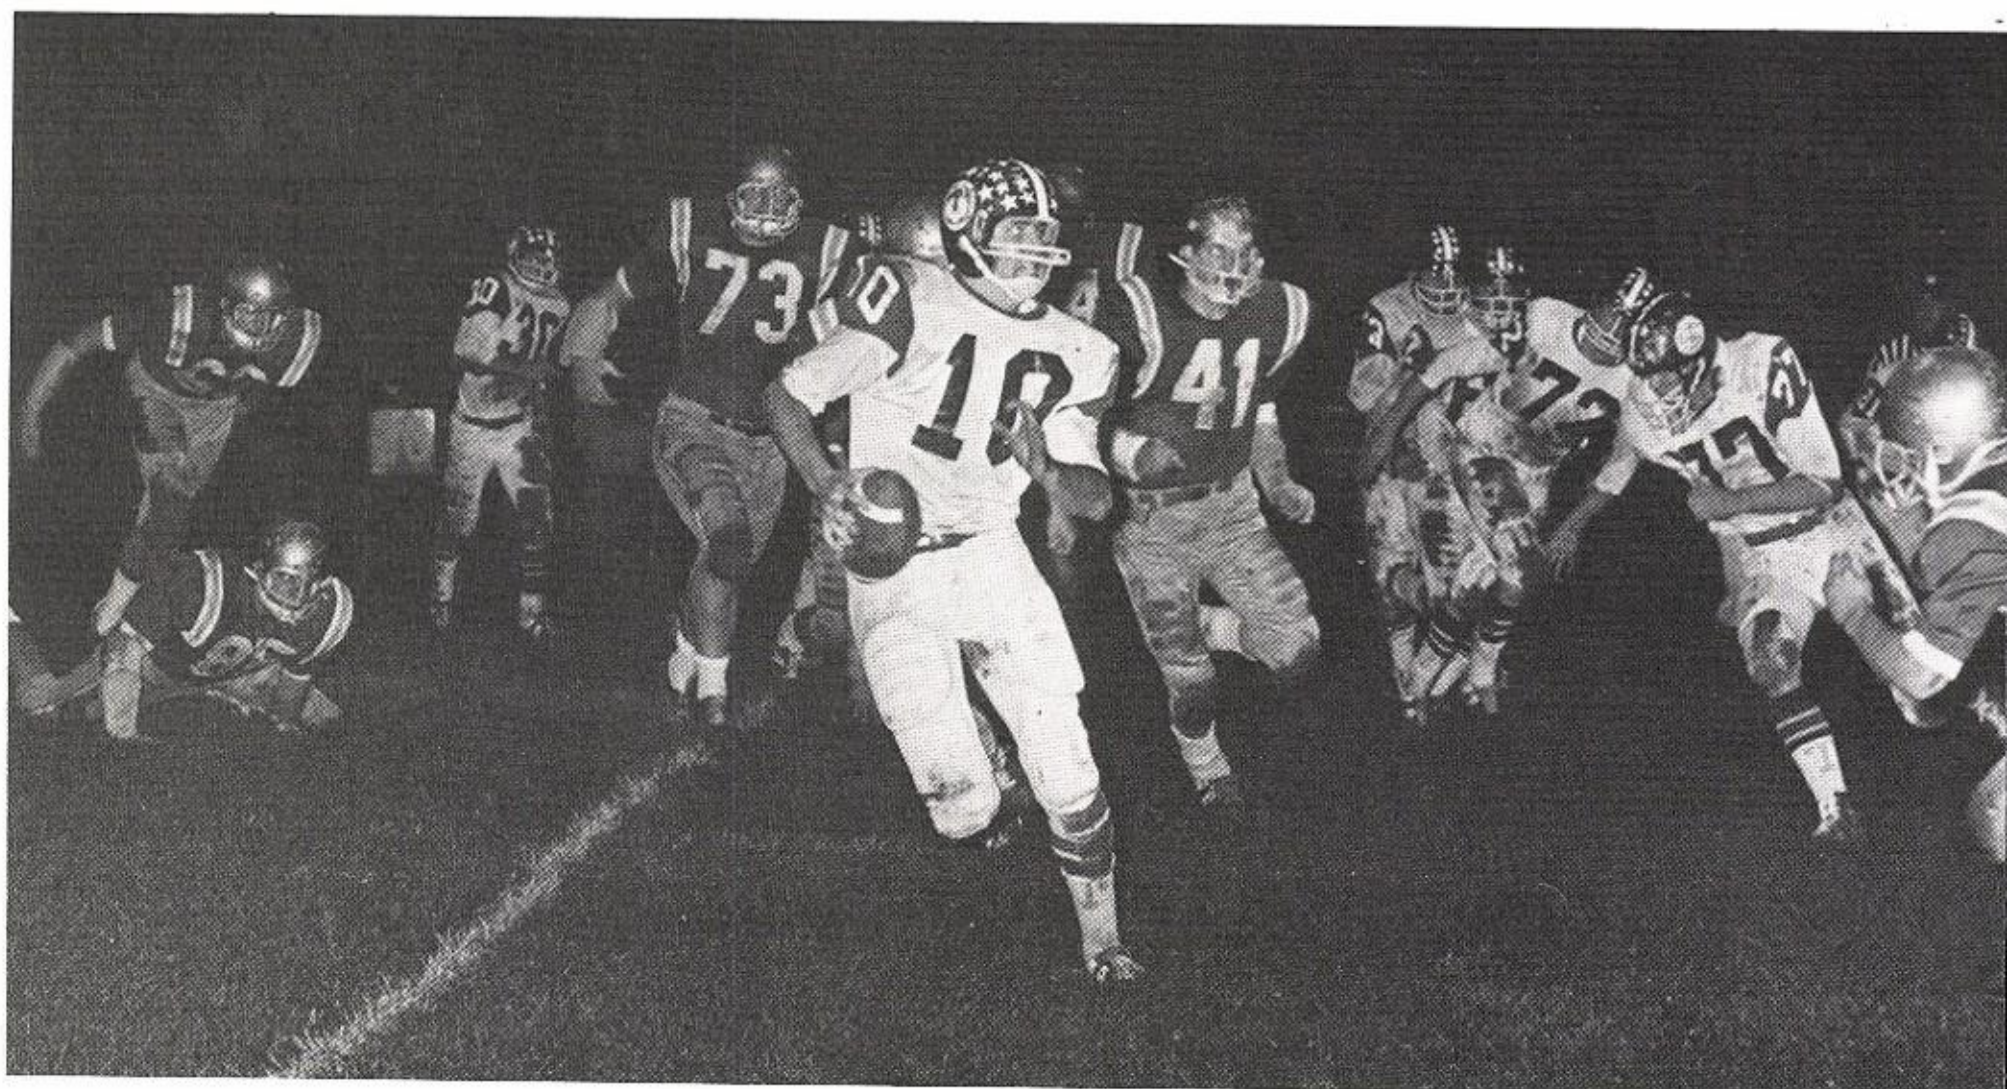

In the first quarter, after a roughing-the-kicker penalty had given them new life, St. X scored first on a fluke 43-yard pass play (see left) in which St. X end Ron Steele outwrestled Trinity's Dan Woock for the ball on the Shamrock 20 and ran it into the end zone. St. X tallied again later for a 12-0 halftime lead.

Beginning the second half, the Irish drove for their first and only touchdown. Jim Mudd received the opening kickoff and returned it 41 yards to the St. X 39. After a face mask violation moved Trinity to the 19, Rick Hancock burst through the right side on third, shook off a tackle, and scored on a 14-yard run. Joe Kirchner failed in a rushing try for the extra point.

(above, clockwise) A sea of humanity, numbering more than 20,000 strong, was on hand at spacious Fairgrounds Stadium to view this year's edition of the annual Trinity-St. X rivalry. (middle) Demonstrating their containment of the St. X offensive attack, the Irish defensive line gang tackles an opposing runner. In a post game interview, Coach Kennedy noted, "We didn't lose (the game) on defense. It was our offense that failed us. I felt confident before the game that we could hold St. X to two touchdowns, but I expected us to score three." (top) As the St. X and Trinity lines clash, quarterback Pierce handoffs to Rick Hancock. For the game, Hancock netted 28 yards in 6 carries and tallied the Rocks' lone score on a 14-yard run. (right) Safety back Jim Mudd leaps high in an attempt to prevent the completion of a pass to an unidentified St. X player. (left) People - some 1000 of them - were what made the massive Rock March so fantastically successful and colorful.

ROCKS EMERGE VICTORIOUS IN CLASHES WITH OUT-OF-TOWN FOES

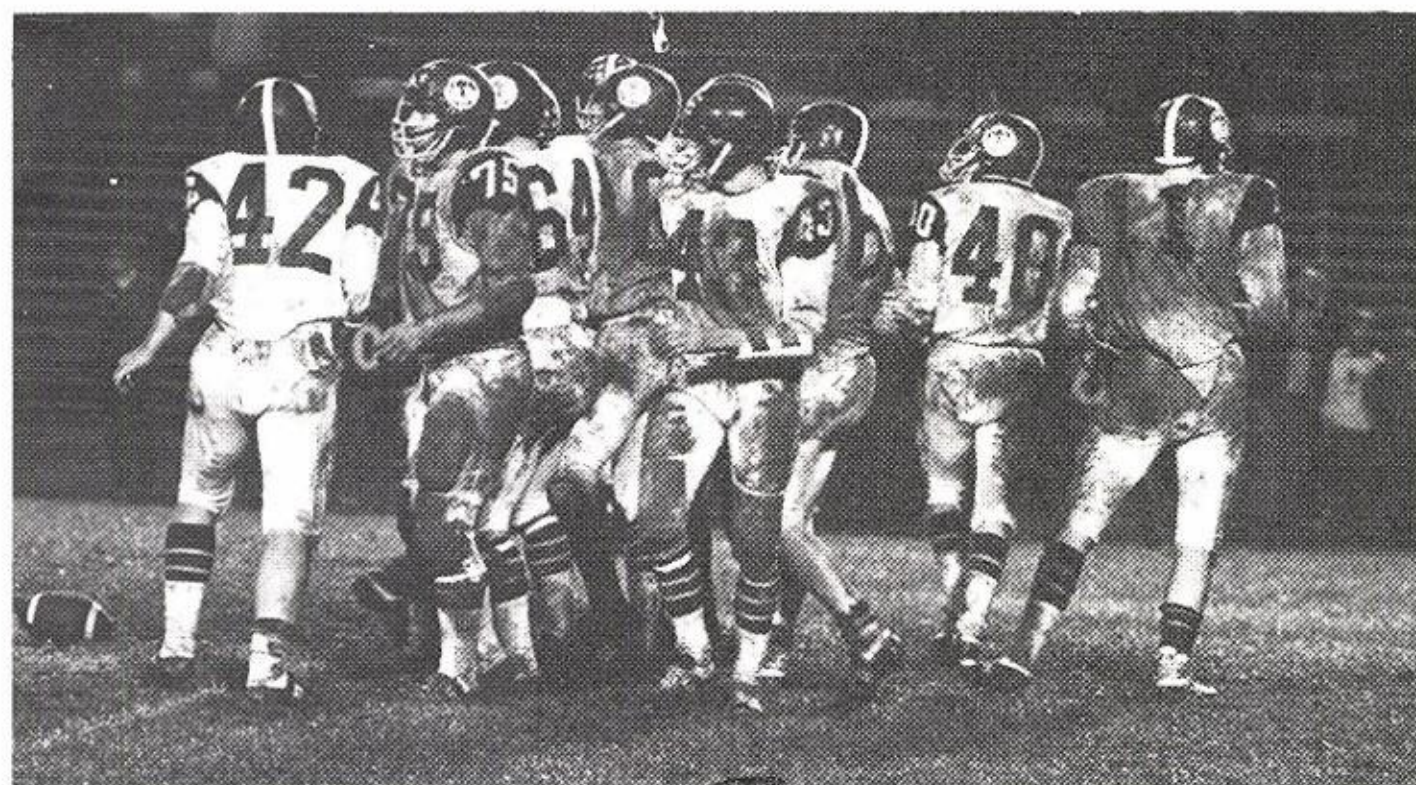

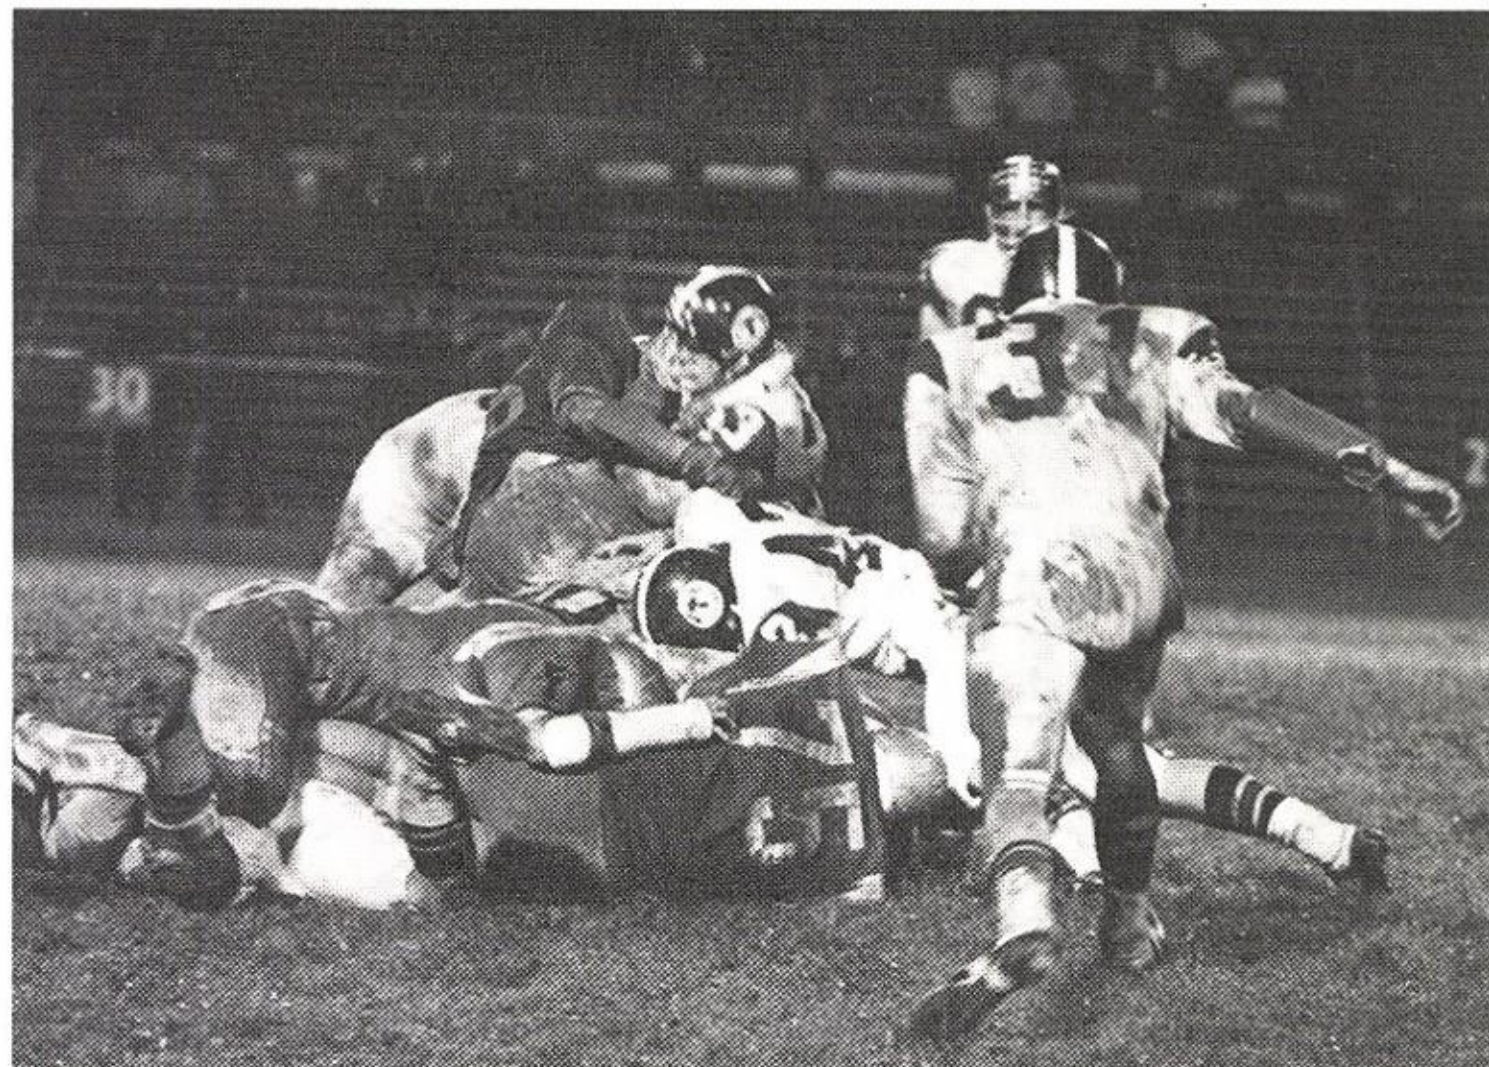

The 1969 Irish football schedule was by no means a pushover. Besides facing its city rivals, the Rocks were pitted against two Ohioan powerhouses, Steubenville and Hamilton Garfield, and the Kentucky AA champ of the previous year, Fort Thomas Highlands.

After a 700-mile trek deep into Buckeye territory, Trinity opened its season with a convincing 21-8 trouncing of the Big Red at Steubenville. After tallying first on a 5-yard scamper by Rick Hancock, the Irish rambled to a 15-8 halftime advantage as Pierce connected with end Frank Mudd on a 15-yard scoring pass. Midway through the third period, Pierce sewed up the victory with a 5-yard run for a marker. While the Rocks racked up a commanding 306-236 lead in total offense, the secondary corp blunted Steubenville's aerial attack by picking off three interceptions.

Journeying to Fort Thomas Highlands, Trinity amassed an overwhelming first half statistical advantage - 9-1 in first downs, 232-22 in total offense - and glided to a 20-7 demolition of the Bluebirds. Directing this massive outburst, quarterback Pierce romped for 164 yards and two touchdowns - one a 61-yard jaunt on the game's first play from scrimmage. Later in the first quarter, he jacked the Trinity lead to 13-0 with an 8-yard tally. After that, the Irish were never headed as their defense rigidly contained the heralded Highlands offensive attack.

At Waggener Field for their Homecoming Game, the Rocks flexed their muscles for the hometown fans and rumbled to a 33-18 victory over beefy Hamilton Garfield. Putting on an incredible one-man show, Dennis Scully (far right, middle) tallied on touchdown runs of 7 and 53 yards and collected 221 yards in 15 carries.

X-MEN CAPTURE THIRD IN STATE MEET

With a strong season's showing, the 1969 Cross-Country team has further strengthened Trinity's position as a perennial contender for the State crown.

Led by seniors Harold Graves and Dan Barth and sophomore Dave Price, Coach Bealmear's squad ran off a string of seven consecutive dual meet victories before tying eventual state co-champion DeSales and suffering a disappointing late season loss to Atherton. In invitational meets, the Rocks rounded out the season with fourth place finishes at New Albany, Trinity, and Thomas Jefferson, and a sixth place finish at Owensboro. In each invitational, the Shamrocks trailed eventual state co-champions DeSales and Thomas Jefferson.

In a bid for their fifth consecutive Regional crown, the harriers were stunned by the Westport Warhawks 41-58. The defeat tasted even more bitter in view of Trinity's earlier 25-36 conquest of Westport in dual meet competition.

Disgusted with their sub-par regional performance, the Irish bounced back in the State Meet to edge Westport 140-142 for third place behind DeSales and Thomas Jefferson who tied for first.

Soccer Team Posts "BEST EVER" 5-5 RECORD

With the accent on an unyielding defense, the soccer team forged a 5-5 record and nailed down fifth place in the league. Trinity limited its opponents to a meager 10 goals for the regular season. Only Westport tallied as many as three goals in a single game against the Rocks. Unfortunately, inconsistent scoring plagued Trinity throughout the campaign, preventing the Irish from bettering their break-even record.

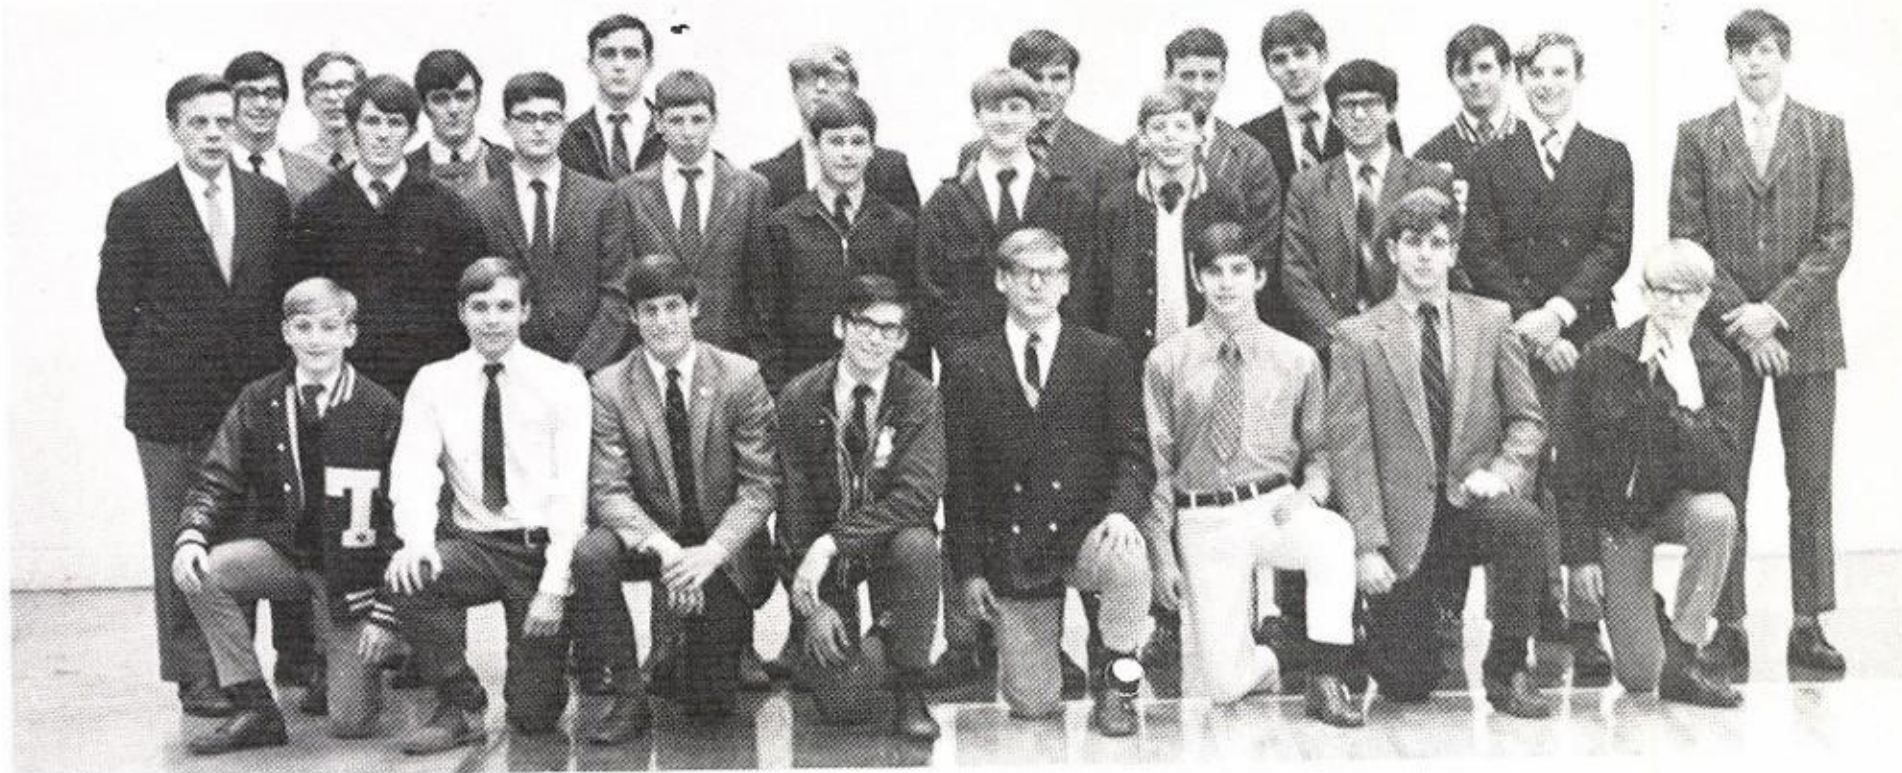

Following a disappointing 1-0 loss to St. X in the season opener, Trinity reeled off consecutive victories over Westport, Waggener, and St. Thomas Seminary. Then, in an abrupt about face, the Rocks proceeded to lose the next three games, before salvaging a 31- triumph over Moore in their season finale.

In State Tournament play, the Irish advanced into the semi-finals with an overtime victory over K.M.I., the number one ranked team. However, Trinity was stopped 2-1 in the next round by St. Thomas Seminary.

205-203 FOR STATE CROWN

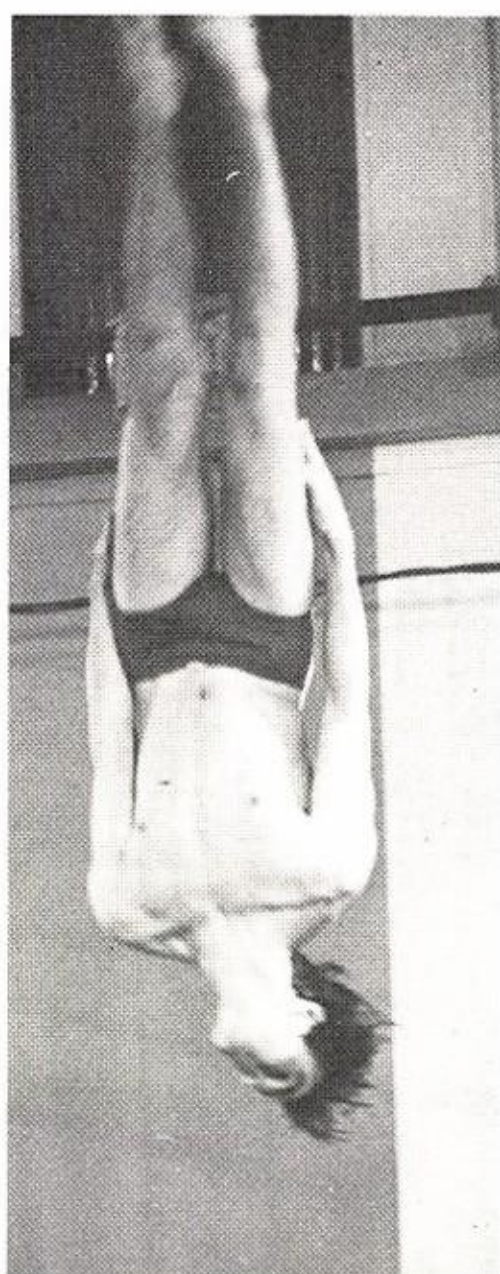

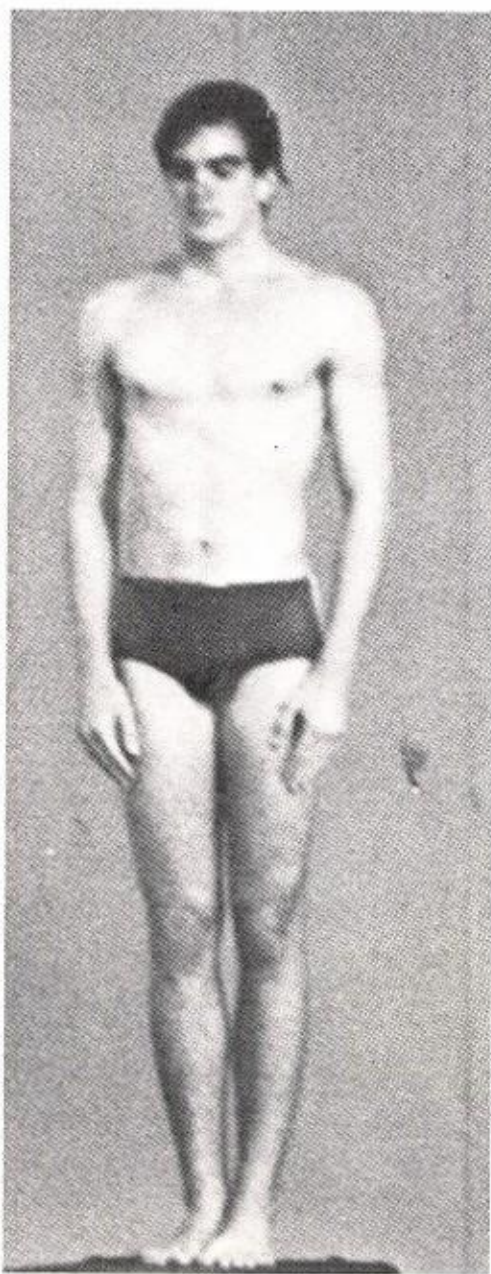

Overcoming a 28-3 Westport edge in diving, Trinity rallied to a 205-203 upset victory over the favored Warhawks in the State AAA Swim meet at Plantation. On the strength of its diving, Westport had opened up a commanding 22 point bulge, 133-111, over the Irish after the 100-yard freestyle, the seventh of the eleven scheduled events. However, in the next two events, freshmen Coleman Smock and Steve Sheridan steered the Rocks onto the comeback trail with strong third place finishes in the 100-yard backstroke and the 100-yard freestyle. Trinity ace Tom Pursley then virtually iced the meet by taking the 100-yard breaststroke for his second victory of the afternoon. Pursley's win boosted the Irish into a 181-171 advantage which they held through the final event.

By capturing the State title, Trinity avenged earlier season losses to Westport, in the Westport relays (128-114) and in dual meet competition (52-45).

WRESTLERS TAKE EIGHT IN STATE MEET

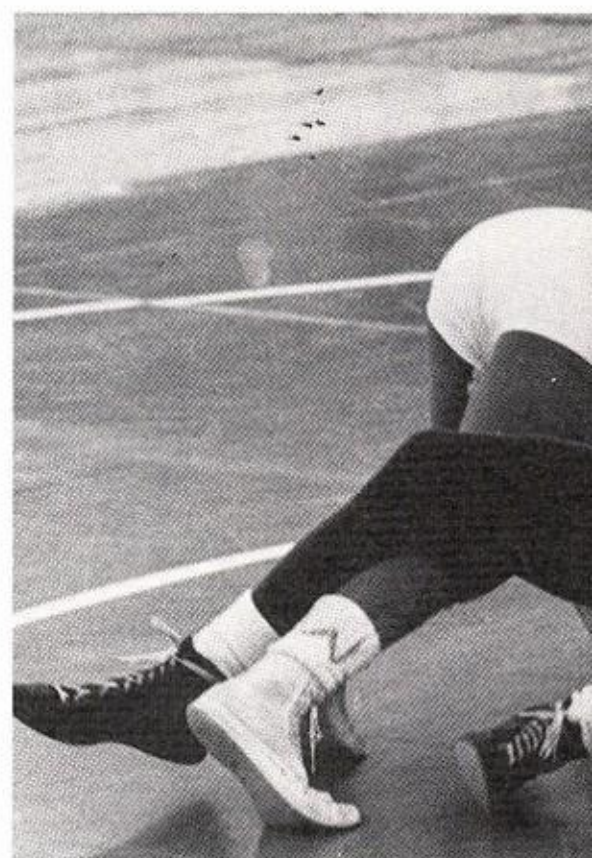

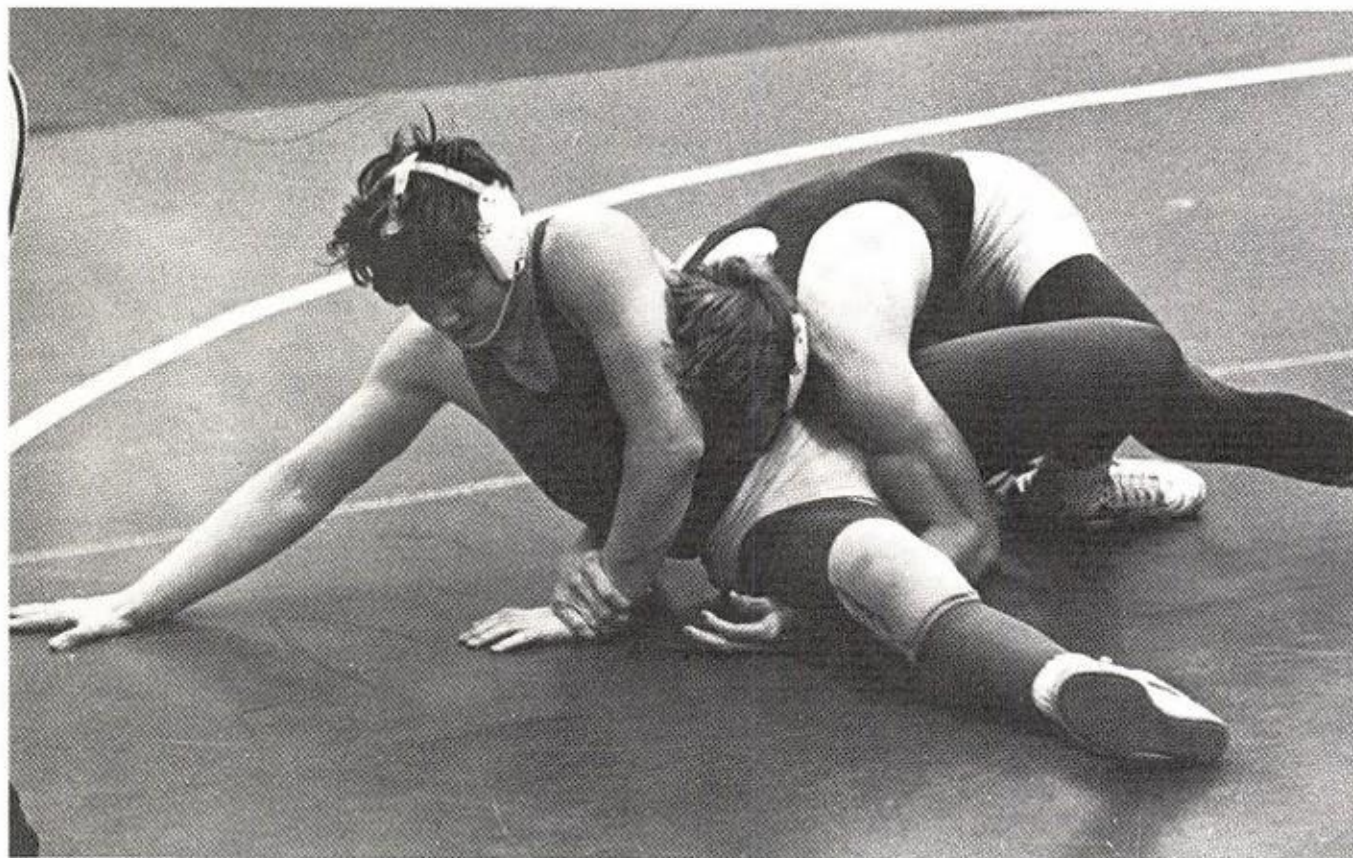

The Trinity wrestlers, under rookie Coach Toby Woods, compiled an admirable 8-3 record in dual meet competition during the 1969-70 season. In tournament and invitational action, the Rocks boasted a second at New Albany, a third in the Regional, and an eighth in the State Meet.

The team was led by Co-captains Mike Czerwonka and Glenn Edelen, regional champ in the 115 lb. weight division. Senior Steve Jecker and junior John Hibb each made outstanding contributions to the team effort. Jecker (left) captured first place in the Regional Tournament and then nailed down fourth place in the State 165 lb. class. Hibb amassed an impressive 19 victories against only 4 losses in the 175 lb. competition, en route to a third place finish in the State.

IRISH

"A lot of question marks," was how head coach Bob Schmidt rated his basketball prospects in late November. "We have only three seniors and none of them were starters." However, the Irish progressively overcame their inexperience and battled to a 10-11 regular season slate. Entering post-season action, the Rocks boasted an inflexible defense and a competent, though erratic, offense.

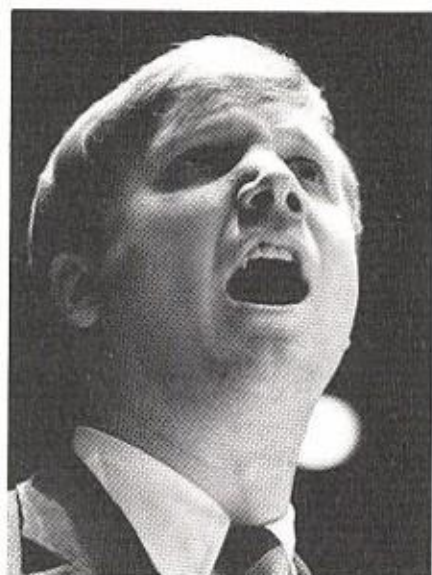

In the district opener, with four players scoring in double figures, Trinity swept by Country Day 78-34. Larry Loehle led the balanced offensive attack with 15 points. Advancing into the final with Atherton, the Irish were overtaken by a second half Rebel rally and fell 65-52.

In the Regional, paced by Stan Block's 17 points, the Rocks scored a steady 65-49 victory over first round foe Jeffersontown. Facing rival St. X in the quarterfinals, Trinity failed to mount a consistent scoring attack and was sidelined 66-59.

(FOR SEASON SCOREBOARD, SEE PAGE 65).

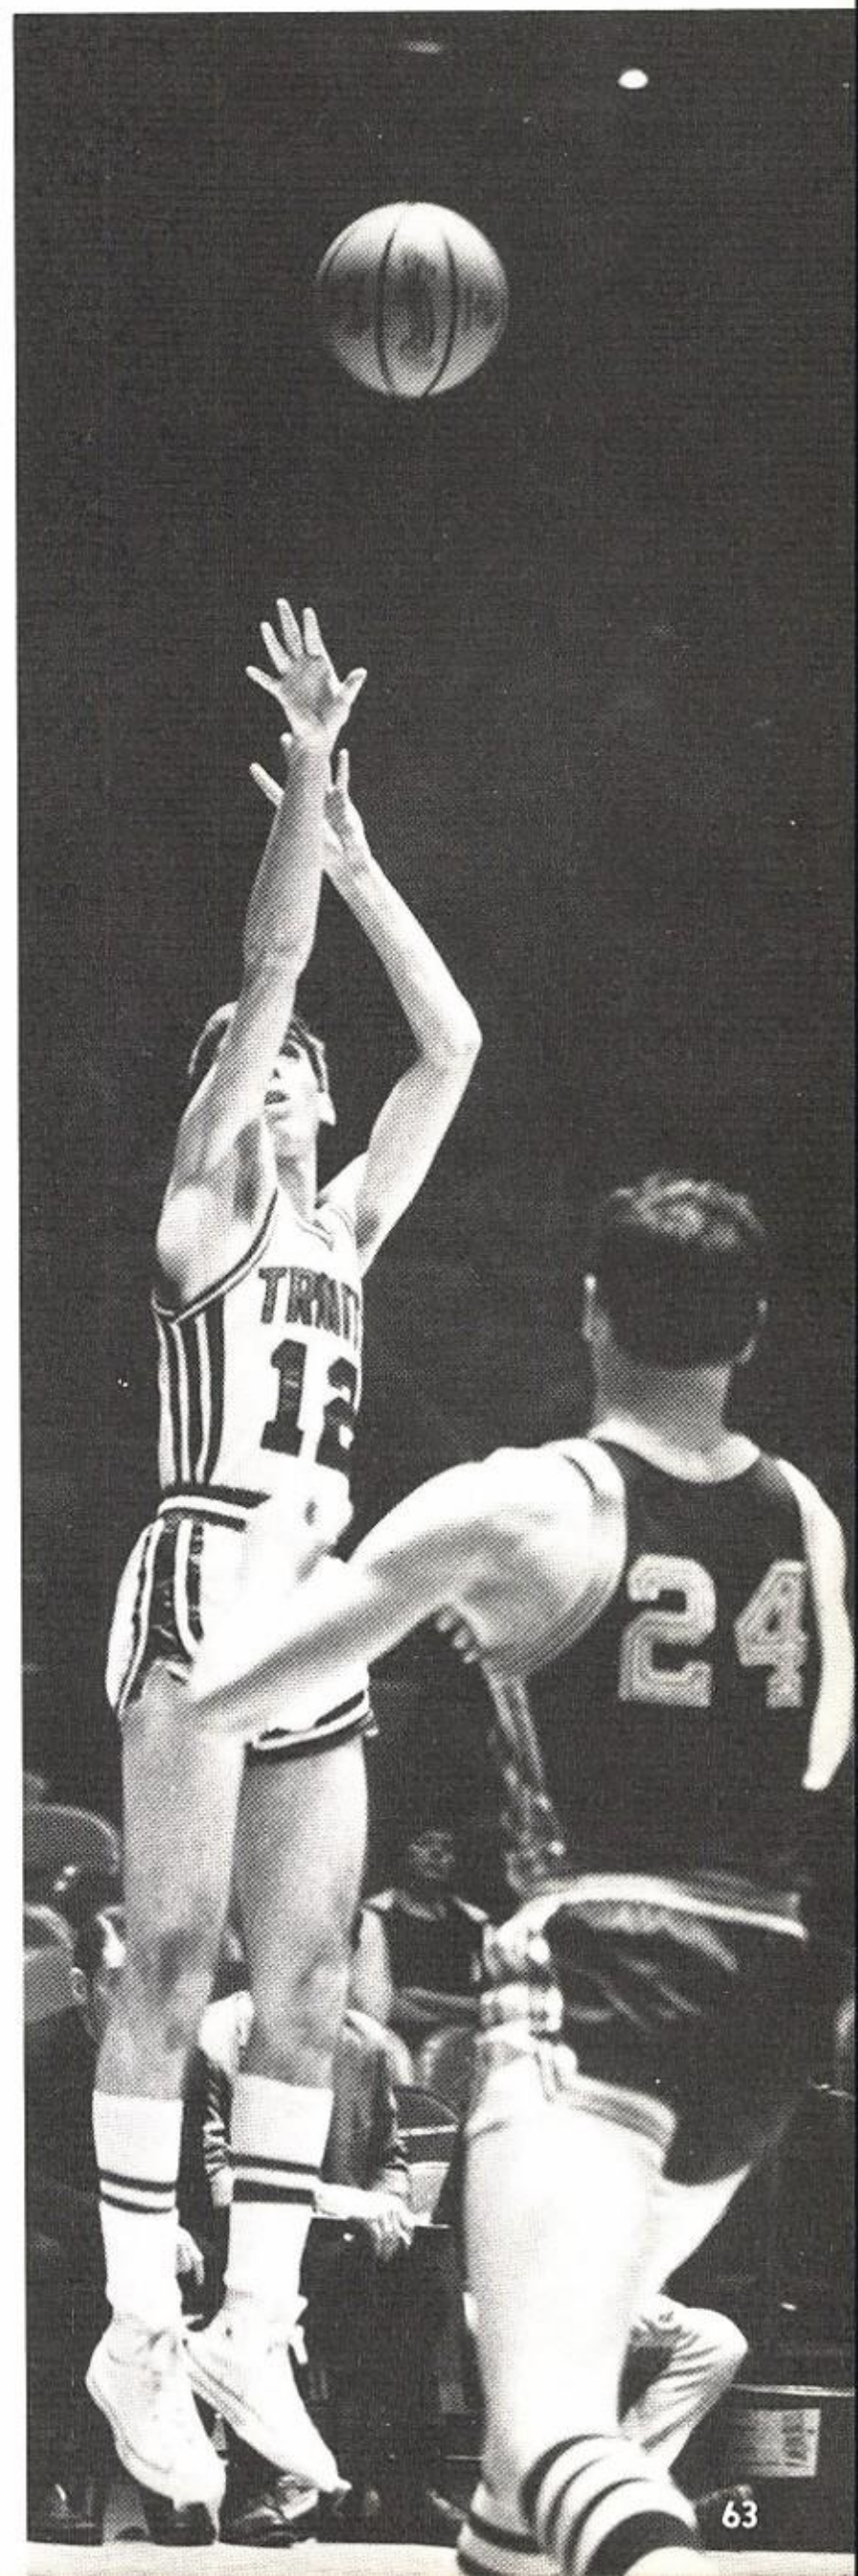

(above) Senior center Larry Loehle emerged as team leader and strongman on offense, averaging 17.2 points a game to top 26th district scorers. Sophomore guard Don Freibert (opp. pg., right) and junior forward Stan Block (opp. pg., top left) also developed into team mainstays. Freibert, as team playmaker, directed the Irish offense. Block anchored the defense with his rebounding strength and supplemented Loehle in the scoring column. (right) Sandwiched between two St. X. defenders, Larry Loehle cautiously threads his way through outstretched limbs. Loehle was held to eight points in the 65-52 Regional loss to St. X. (opp. pg., right) All heads jerk upward as Loehle's tip-in attempt barely clears the hand of Tiger center Larry Bender.

UPSET BID FAILS AS ST. X SURVIVES 62-51

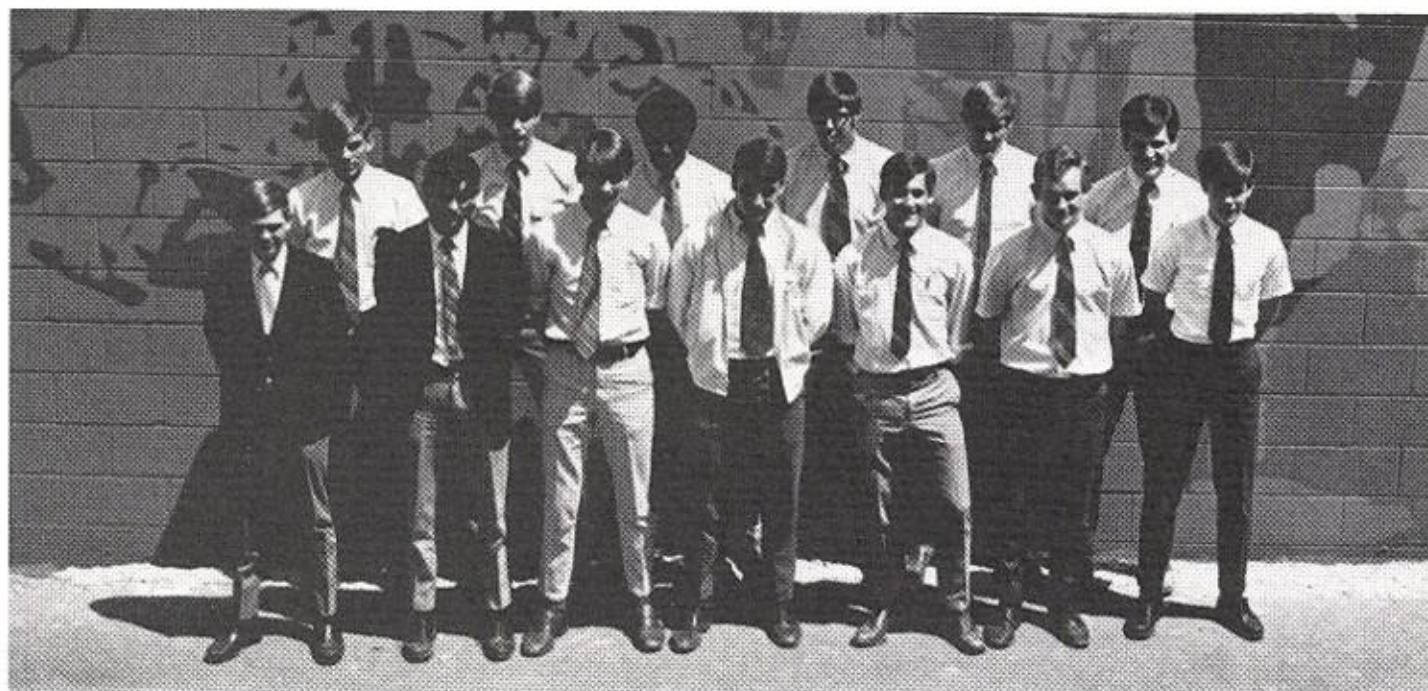

For three quarters, it was all Trinity. But in the final, decisive quarter, arch-rival St. X dominated the action, popping Trinity's upset bubble 62-51 in the annual Trinity-St. X contest at Bellarmine Gym. Leading 41-39 entering the final period, the cold-shooting Irish were outscored 23-10, as heavily-favored St. X hit on 10 of their last 15 shots. For the game, the Rocks connected on 18 of 60 attempts for a mediocre 30 percent. Stan Block topped the Trinity scoring attack with 12 points.

ONE STROKE MARGIN DENIES TRINITY STATE GOLF TITLE

After rallying to a two stroke lead going into the final nine holes, the Trinity golf team's bid for the state championship fell through as first round leader, Russellville, came on to take the title by one stroke. Entering the final day of play, the Rocks were down by four strokes, 307-311, to the Russellville contingent. However, led by Steve Davison's 36, the Irish four-some mounted a charge which vaulted themselves into a two stroke advantage at the turn. The Shamrocks then toured the easy backside in 152, eight over par. But Russellville carded a scorching 149 on its back nine to overtake Trinity and post its narrow one stroke victory. Top shotmakers for the Rocks during the 36-hole state tournament were Bubba Clements and Steve Davison at 152.

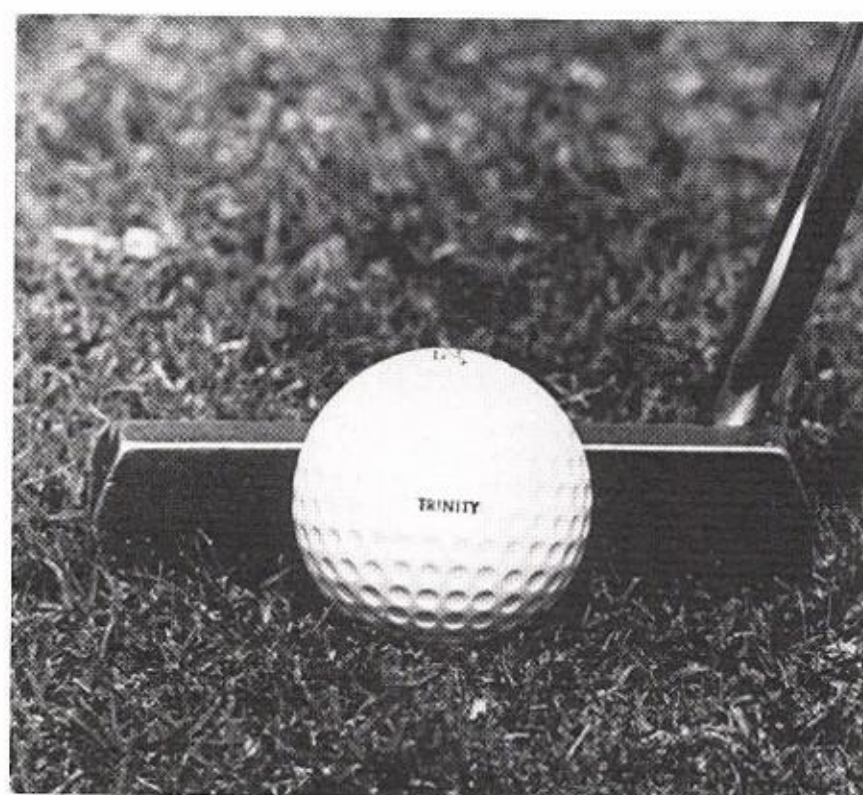

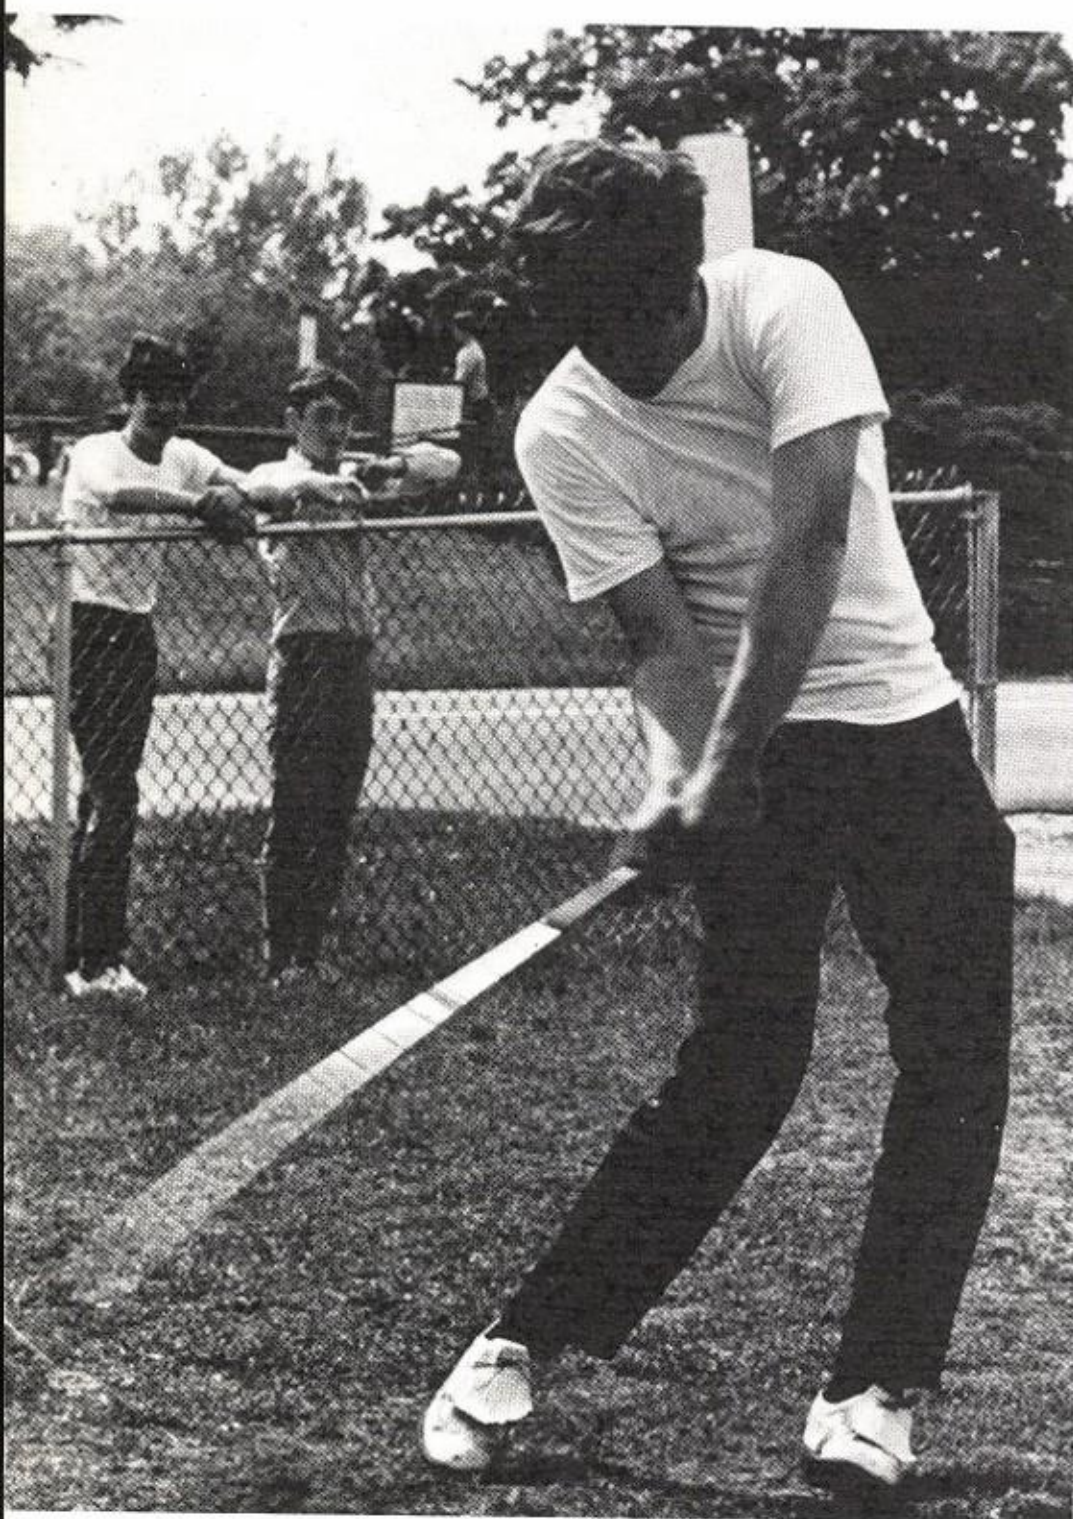

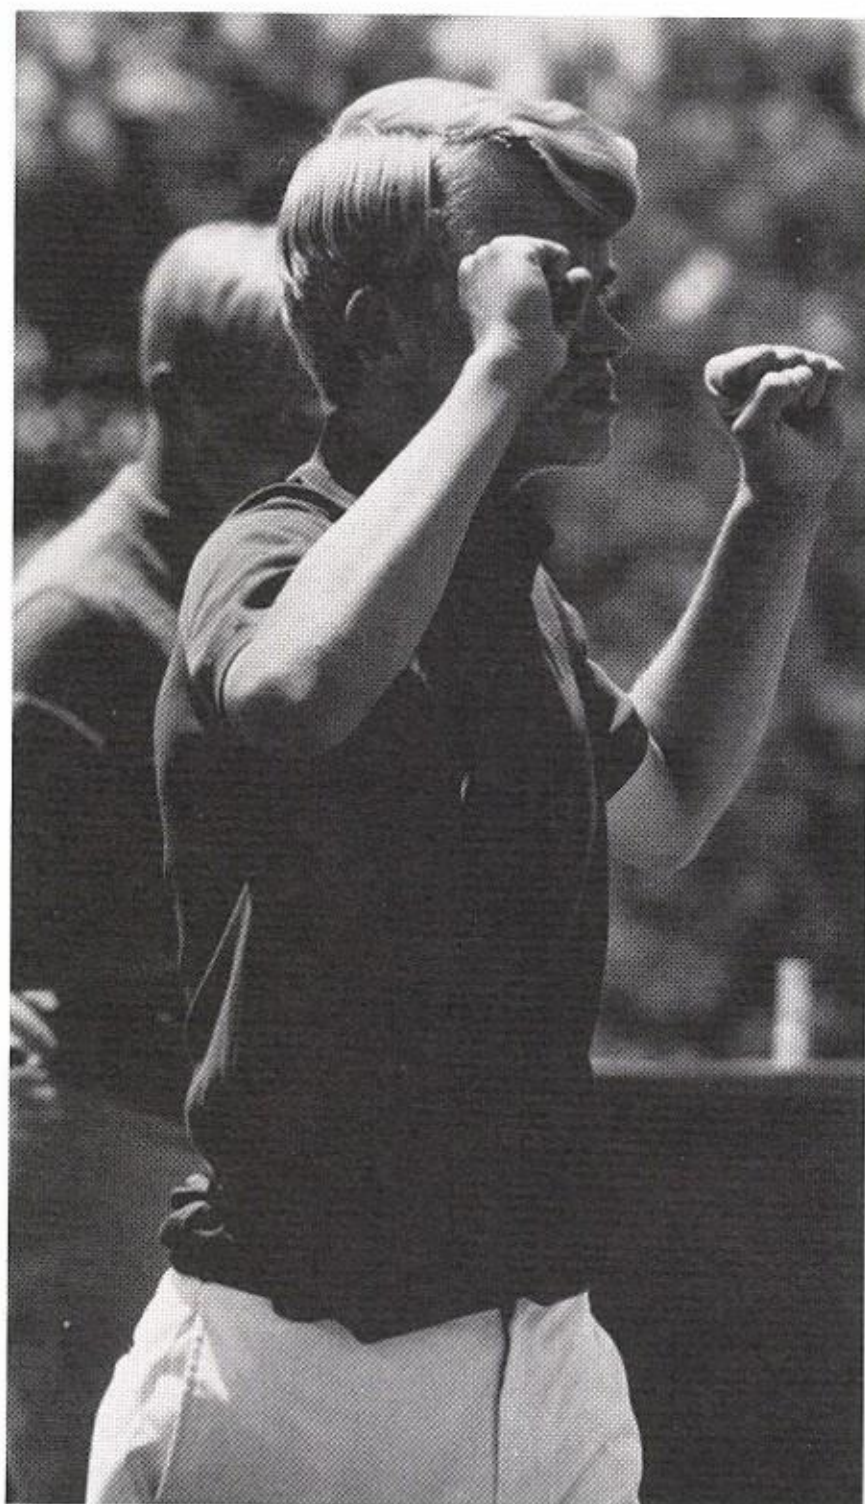

TRINITY ENDS THREE YEAR ST.X REGIONAL REIGN 307-311

Headed by Bubba Clements' 72, Trinity snipped a St. X. Regional victory string at three with a convincing 307-311 triumph over their arch-rival in the East Jefferson County Regional at Seneca. By taking the Regional title, the Irish qualified for a berth in the state meet. (see page 69)

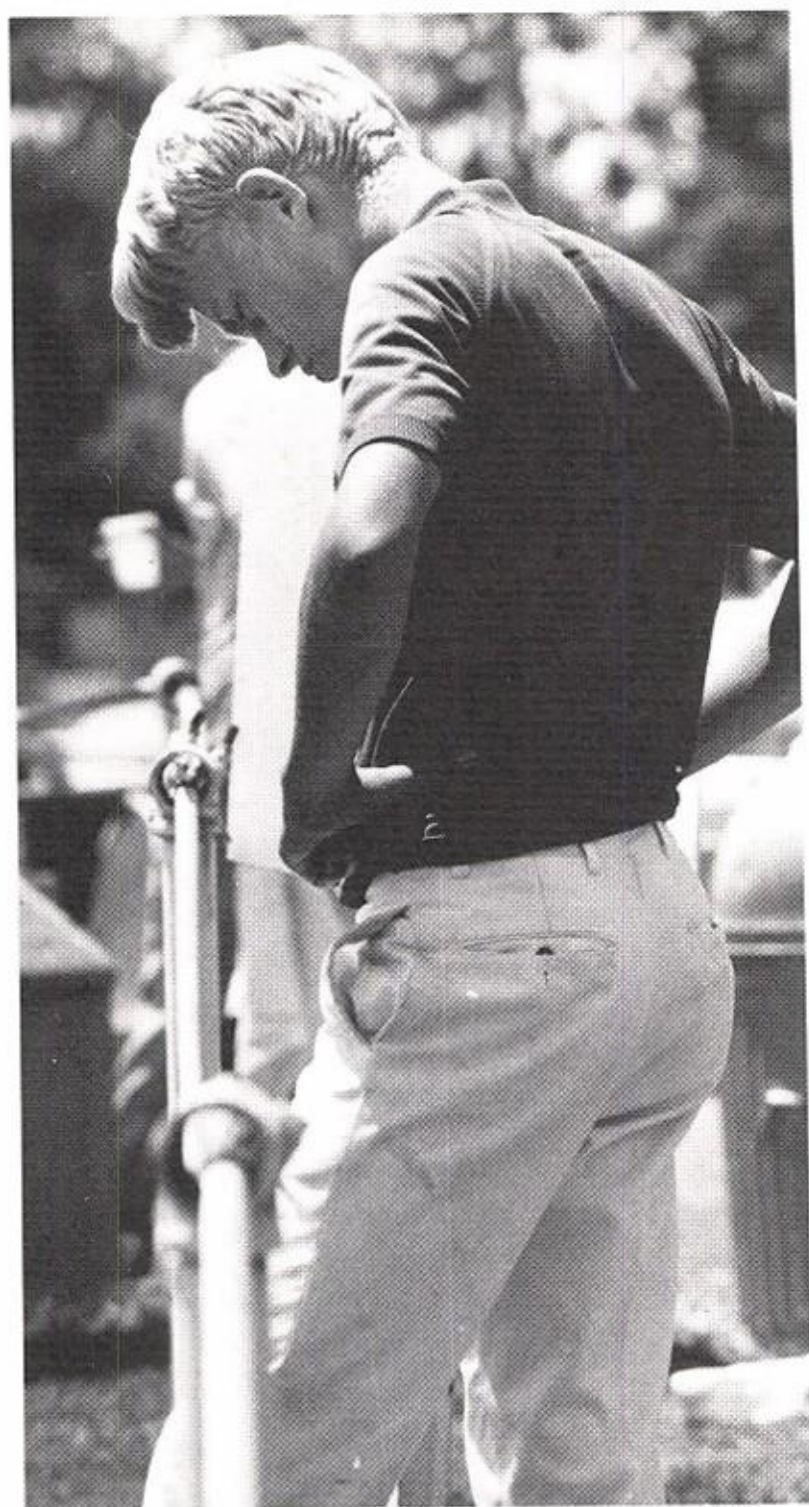

Clements had nines of 35 and 37 enroute to his par 72 round. He tied Chip Montgomery of St. X. for low medalist honors, but lost the individual crown on the third hole of the resulting sudden death playoff.

TRINITY PULLS UP LAME AS SCULLY INJURES LEG

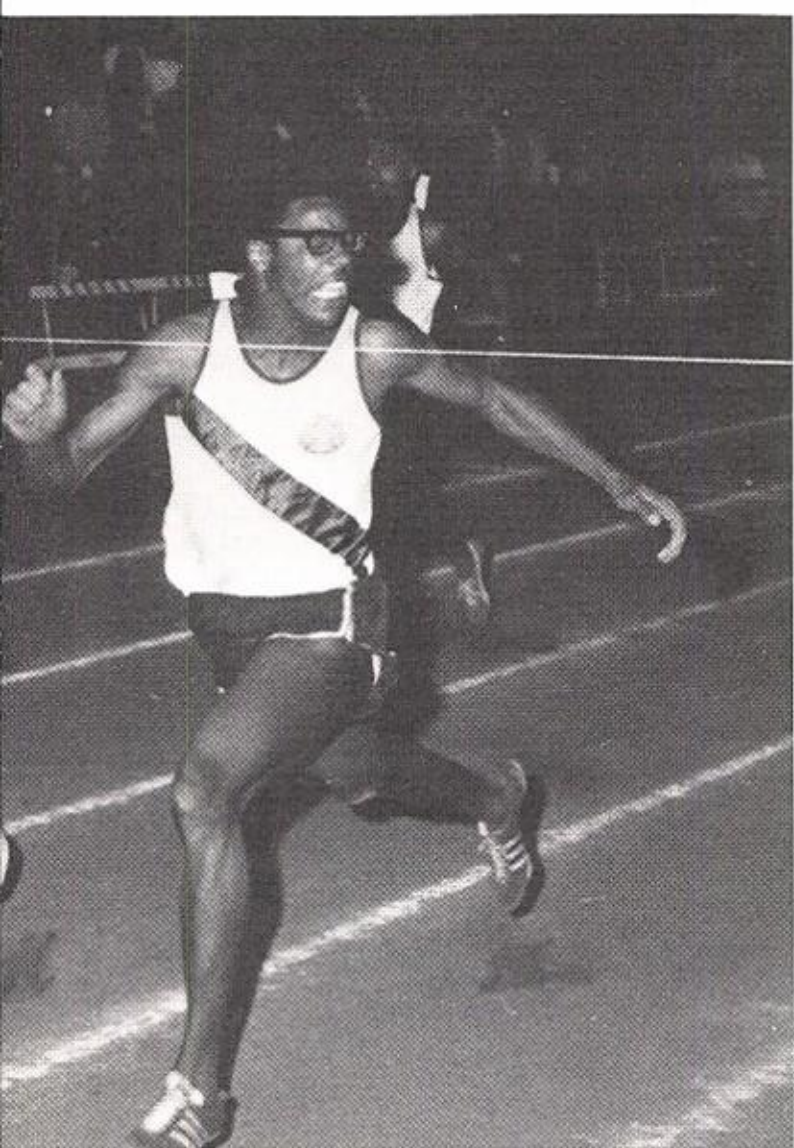

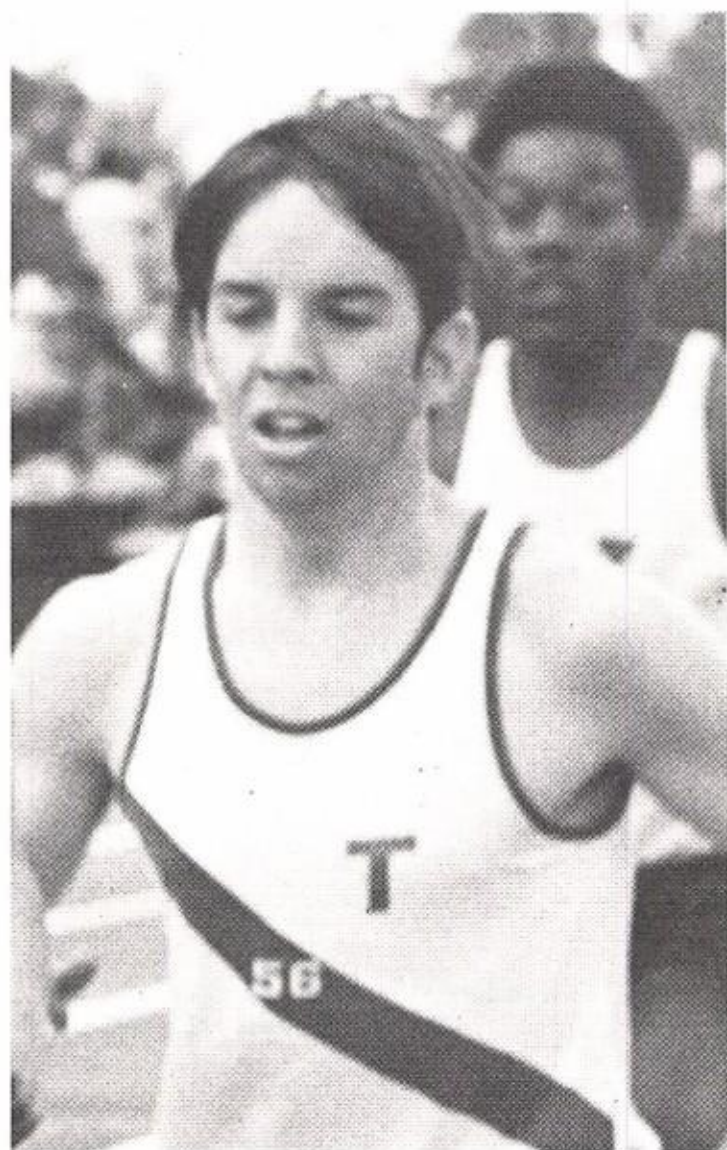

Track star Dennis Scully incurred a leg injury toward the end of the season which forced him to the sidelines for the remainder of the schedule. That's the whole story as Trinity, minus Scully, limped to mediocre finishes in its last three outings, including a poor fifth place showing in the Regional.

The season began optimistically with triple-jumper Joe Sewell garnering a first place finish, and the 880 relay team (Scully, Mudd, Fowler, Raible) a second, in the Mason Dixon games. The Irish then raced to victories in their next two meets before capturing their first Trinity Invitational crown in the event's nine-year history. Scully ignited the Invitational triumph, notching up first in the 100 and 200 yard dashes and anchoring Trinity's winning relay teams in the 440 and 880 yard heats. With Scully again leading the way, Trinity next deadlocked arch-rival St. X. for first on its home track in the Catholic Invitational. A loss to the Tigers in the final event, the mile relay, prevented the Shamrocks from taking the title outright. It was in the following dual meet with Thomas Jefferson that Dennis Scully pulled up with a leg injury in the 100-yard dash.

In the Regional Meet at Eastern, Dan Barth (opp. pg., top left) and Larry Loehle (above) highlighted the Irish fifth place finish with victories in the mile run (4:34.5) and the high jump (5-10) respectively. (FOR SEASON SCOREBOARD, SEE PAGE 74)

TRINITY NINE TAKE 20-8 RECORD INTO STATE DEBUT

Under the direction of four-year head coach Wayne Walker (bottom right), the Trinity baseball team compiled a 15-8 regular season slate. 4-1 and 8-6 victories over arch-rival St. X. and P.R.P. capped the season schedule and created momentum for the Rocks as they entered post-season action.

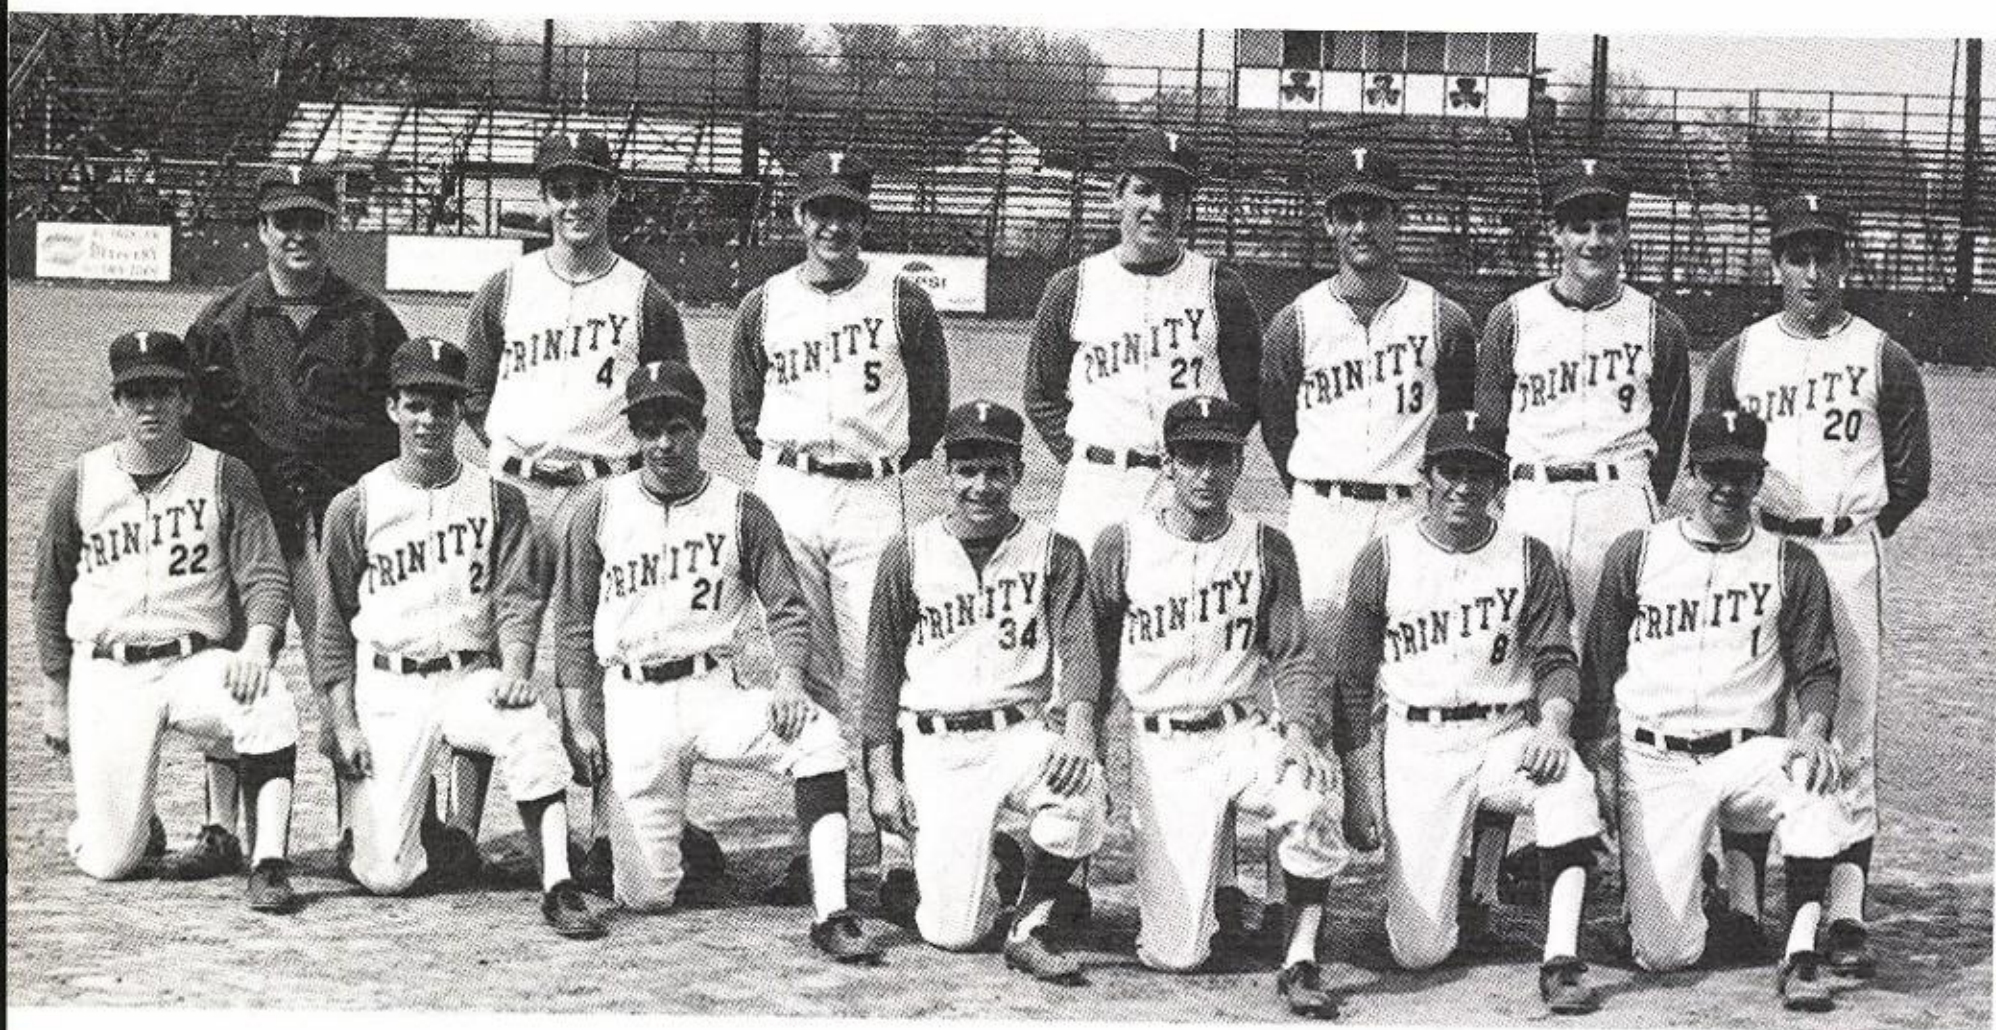

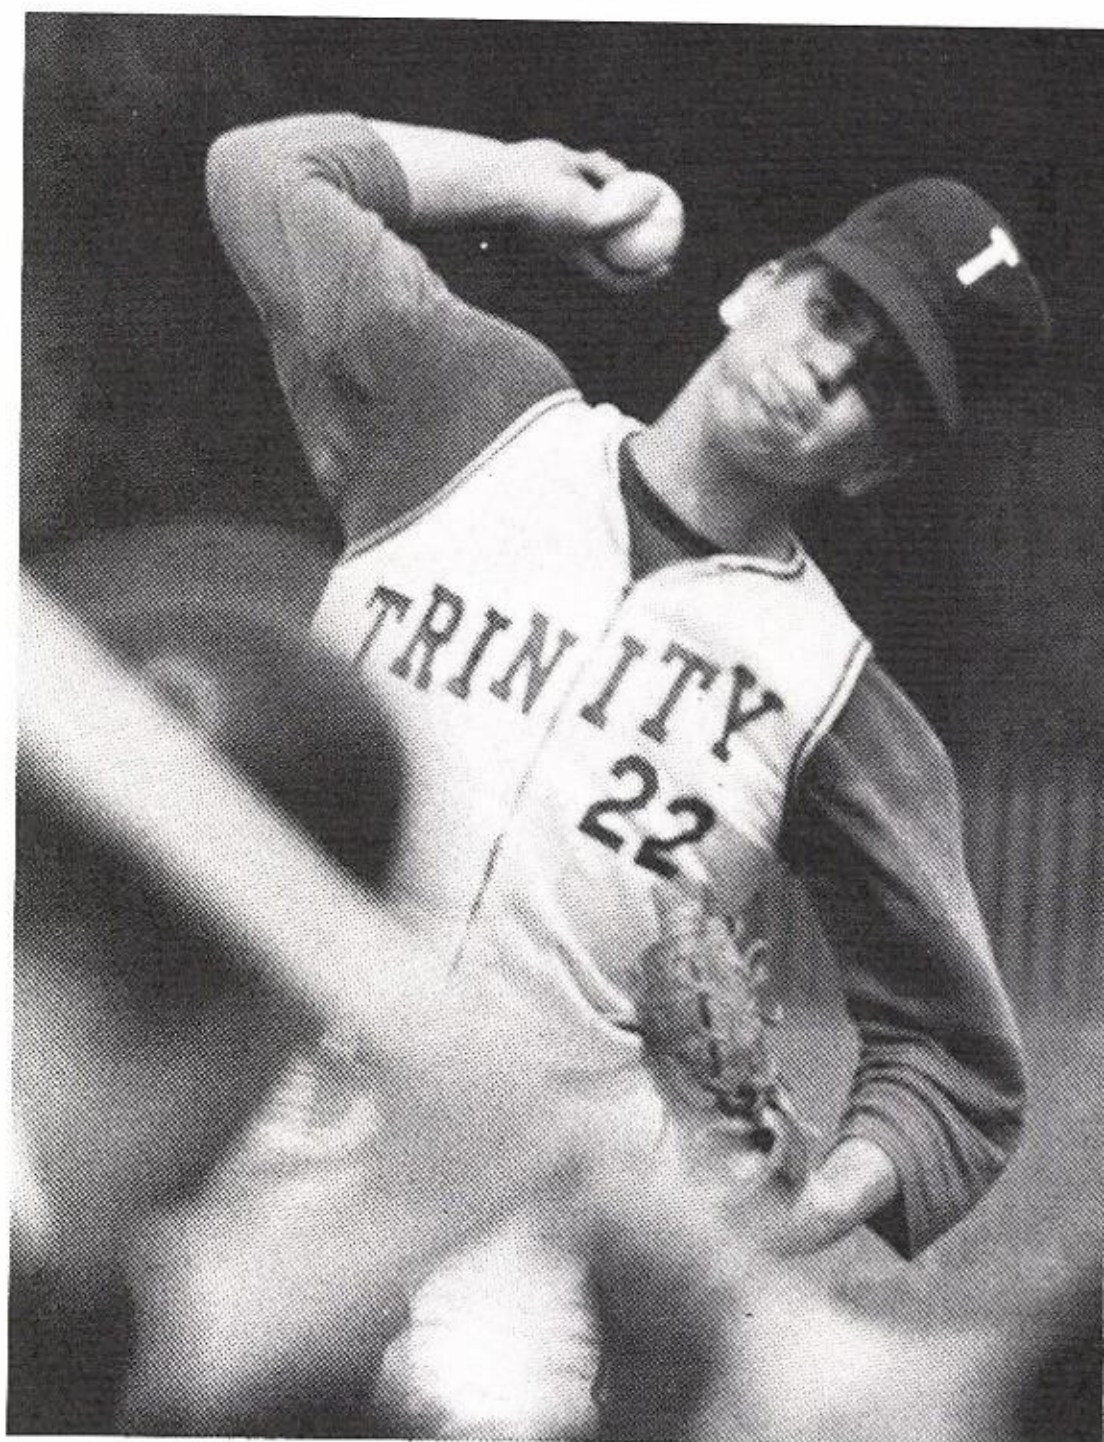

In the 26th district opener at Trinity Field, pitcher Dan Gadlage hurled the Rocks to a 5-2 triumph over the Atherton Rebels. Gadlage went the distance allowing just three hits and striking out twelve. Later in the week, powered by Phil Amthor's (opp. page, top left) three run single, Trinity whipped Seneca 7-2 to wrap up the district championship.

At St. X for the Regional, the Irish exploded for ten runs on nine hits to crush first round opponent T.J. 10-1. Dan Gadlage tossed a sparkling three-hitter and also paced the Rocks hitting attack with three safeties and five runs batted in. The following day Trinity sidelined Flaget 7-3 in the semi-finals. Dave Sweets performed the mound chores, chalking up his fifth victory in seven decisions. In the finals of the three-day Tournament, the Shamrocks captured their first Regional crown as Dan Gadlage came on in relief of starter Joe Fowler to preserve a 4-3 extra-inning thriller over Bishop David. Gadlage struck out 11 in his five inning relief stint and received credit for the victory.

In Trinity's State Tournament debut, the Irish bandwagon was sidetracked 3-0 by Elizabethtown, the eventual state champion. A disastrous 3-run E'town. first inning spelled, the end of the line for Trinity and starting pitcher Dan Gadlage, who was gunning for his fourth tournament win. (FOR SEASON SCOREBOARD, SEE PAGE 78)

ROBERTS, KANE POWER TO

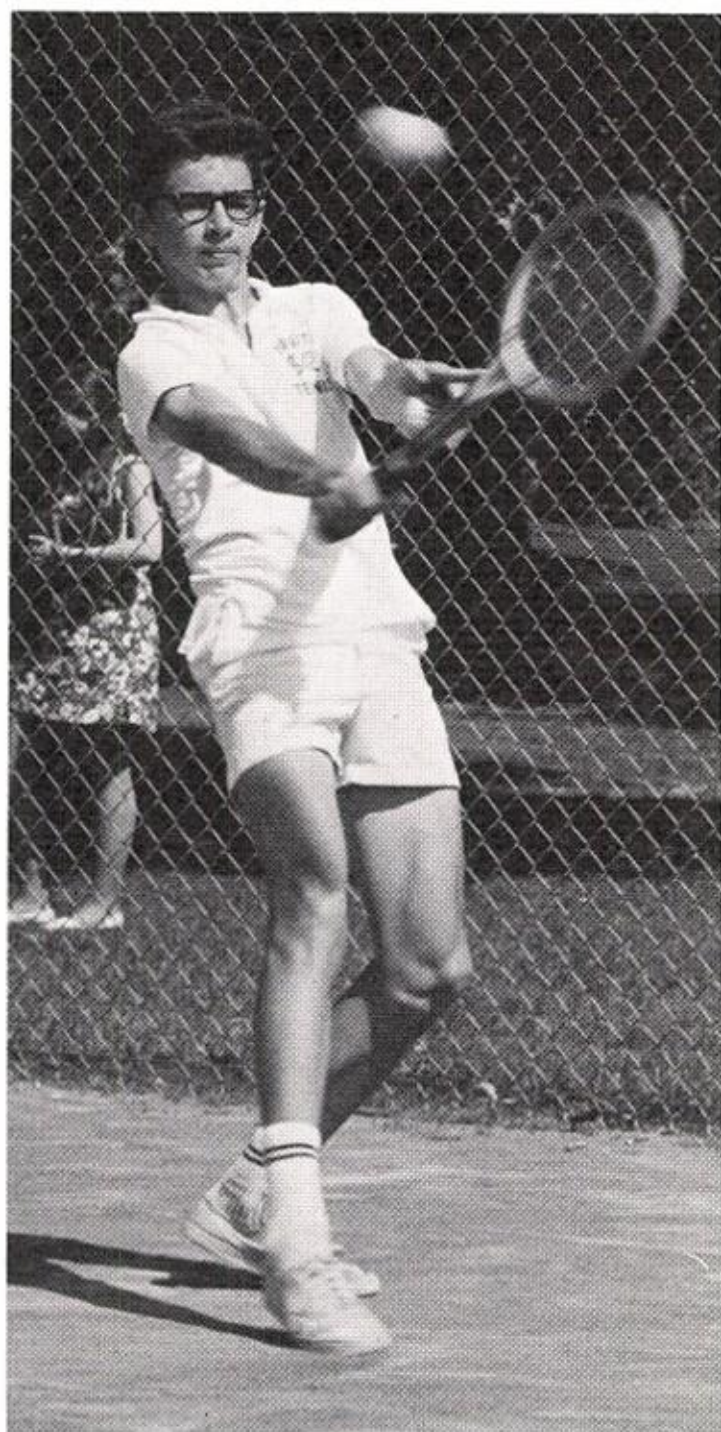

STATE DOUBLES TITLE

Making their State tournament debut as a team, Trinity seniors Ted Roberts and Mike Kane swept to the doubles championship with a convincing 6-2, 6-0 decision over Wilkinson and Jones of Henry Clay. En route to reaching the finals, the duo encountered little resistance, taking matches with Hopkinsville 6-4, 6-4, and Shelbyville 6-0, 6-2.

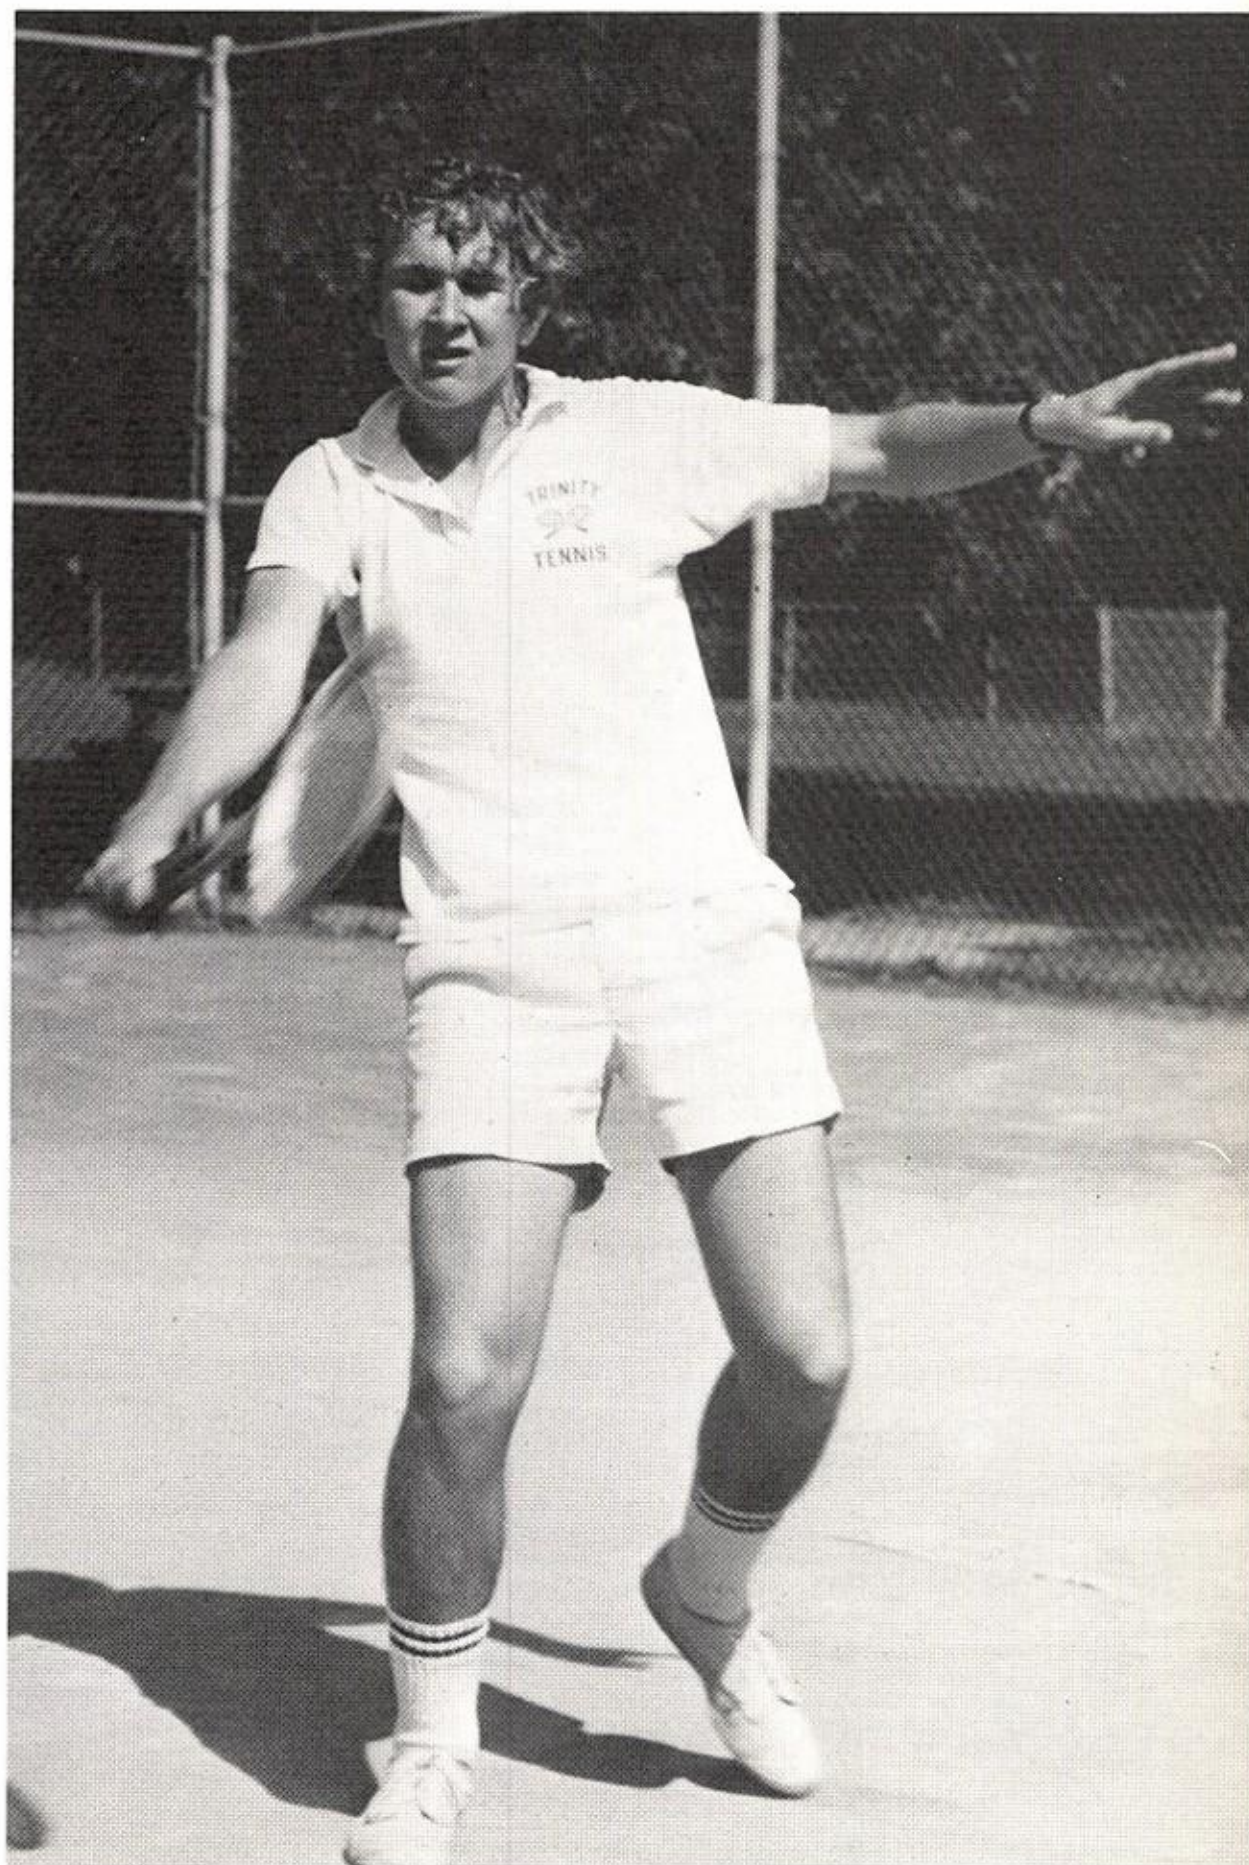

In clinching a berth in the State meet, Roberts (opp. pg., right) and Kane (opp. pg., left) had earlier captured the Regional crown by sidelining Country Day 6-0, 5-7, 6-2.

Sophomore J. T. Sims and freshman Kevin Walsh were Coach Klaus Mittelsten's nominees for the Regional singles competition. Advancing into the semi-finals, Walsh was dealt his first setback in 13 matches, falling 6-2, 6-0 to eventual state champion Tim Cooper of St. X. Following Walsh's lead, Sims faced Cooper in the finals and stretched him to three sets before bowing 3-6, 6-2, 2-6. By finishing as runner-up, however, Sims qualified for the State Meet.

J. T. Sims, Trinity's lone representative in the State singles, advanced into the semi-finals before being sidetracked 7-5, 2-6, 3-6 by Gary Plock of Ballard. (FOR SEASON SUMMARY AND SCOREBOARD, SEE PAGE 83)

TENNIS TEAM CARVES OUT FIRST UNBEATEN SEASON

The Trinity tennis team, with rookie coach Klaus Mittelsten at the helm, breezed to a 10-0 record in dual meet competition to chalk up its first unbeaten season in the school's history. A pair of victories over arch-rival St. X. (4-3 and 5-2) highlighted the campaign and erased the major roadblock to the compiling of the unblemished slate.

In opening their season, the Irish accepted an invitation to participate in the Southern Regional Tournament, a meet involving schools from all the states in the South. J. T. Sims and Kevin Walsh each captured the singles title in his respective age division, then teamed up to finish runner-up in the doubles. The senior twosome of Ted Roberts and Mike Kane was sidelined in the first few rounds, as Roberts was hampered with a foot injury.

GRADUATION

LONG-AWAITED GRADUATION . . .

FINALLY ARRIVES

*“STAR

*This memory brightens o'er the past
As when the sun, concealed behind
Some cloud that near us hangs,
Shines on a distant field.*

Longfellow
